The College of Social & Behavioral Sciences provides several avenues to academic, professional, and vocational competence. Besides specific courses preparing students for a broad variety of occupational categories, general education classes furnish an extensive breadth of knowledge and a keen appreciation for moral, intellectual, and aesthetic values.

Although stressing breadth of education, curricula of the College afford enough specialization and career education to prepare students for enrollment in professional schools and graduate programs or for participation in various occupational classifications immediately upon graduation.

The Criminal Justice program provides students with a liberal education, while offering academic preparation through an expanded emphasis on criminal justice education. The program also offers a basis for graduate study and seeks to contribute significantly to the improvement of the quality of justice administration.

Criminal justice agencies in the recent past have established advanced academic standards. Education is becoming a more meaningful factor in selection of law enforcement, corrections, and security personnel for initial employment, promotion, and administrative roles.

MASTER OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE

(M.S.C.J.)

Program Director: Dr. L. Kay Gillespie
Telephone Contact: Secretary 801-626-6146

Who Should Apply

The program is designed for criminal justice and social service professionals who wish to continue their education.

Program Description

The Master of Science Degree in Criminal Justice is designed to provide post-baccalaureate education to criminal justice professionals and traditional students who have not yet begun a career in criminal justice. The primary goal of the program is to develop in graduates the ability to analyze, comprehend, and explore the complex problems confronting the criminal justice system. The program emphasizes theory, research and administration in the criminal justice system. Students will be able to conceptualize the problems of crime and justice from social, cultural, economic, and political perspectives. In addition, the successful graduate will understand research methods and design as well as statistical strategies used to analyze social science research. Course work will also provide a foundation for those students desiring to pursue doctoral studies.

About the Faculty

The graduate faculty brings diverse backgrounds both in terms of education and professional experience. Faculty graduate degrees include Public Administration, Sociology, Education, Criminal Justice, Political Science, and the Law. Past professional experiences among the faculty include law enforcement administration, prosecuting attorney, criminal defense attorney, probation officer, and parole board members. Faculty research interests cross the full spectrum of the justice system and include issues related to the police, courts, criminal procedures, adult and youth corrections.

About the Program

Classes will be held in the late afternoon and evening to allow for attendance by the non-traditional student who may have a full time work obligation. Initially, all classes will be held on the Weber State University campus in Ogden, Utah. Depending on the time and commitment, students will be able to complete all of the course work in two years.

Admission Requirements

Admission to the master’s program will be competitive and entrance restricted to a limited number of well qualified applicants. Applicants should possess an undergraduate degree in Criminal Justice or a related social or behavioral science area.

Each candidate will be evaluated on (1) past academic performance, (2) score on the Graduate Record Examination (GRE), and (3) overall experience and progression in the criminal justice field or other areas of experience. Specific admissions criteria include:

- Completion of the WSU admissions application form
- Completion of the Department Master’s Degree application form
- Submission of official transcripts from all colleges/universities attended
- Submission of a current resume
- Submission of a written personal statement explaining interest in the program
- Submission of GRE scores

Each applicant will be considered on an individual basis, and those whose undergraduate work does not reflect a basic foundation in criminal justice study, or who do not meet the specific admission requirements, may be admitted on a provisional basis. Students applying without undergraduate competency in Criminal Justice will be required to take basic undergraduate criminal justice classes before being admitted to full candidacy.

Graduation Requirements

The Master of Science degree in Criminal Justice requires the completion of 36 semester hours. Four core courses totaling 12 semester hours are required. These courses are:

The remaining hours will be chosen from elective courses of interest to the student. More than one “C” grade will not count toward completion of the degree. Students must choose between completing a Master’s Project, or taking additional course work in lieu of the project. The requirements for each option are identified below. Regardless of the option chosen, the student must complete all degree requirements within four years of entry into the program.

Project Option

1. Complete 12 core credit hours.
2. Complete 21 elective credit hours.
3. Complete three project credit hours.

Non-Project Option

1. Complete 12 core credit hours.
2. Complete 24 elective credit hours.

MCJ 6810 Experimental Course (1-3)
MCJ 6920 Workshops and Conferences (1-3)

* May be taken twice for a total of 6 credit hours.

MCJ 6100. Contemporary Criminal Justice (3)
Course provides an analysis of the policies and practices of agencies of the criminal justice system including the police, prosecution, courts, and corrections. Additionally, the latest technology and developments in the field of criminal justice will be addressed.

MCJ 6110. Research Methods in Criminal Justice (3)
Course teaches qualitative and quantitative research design, data collection and analysis techniques, and research presentation and dissemination methods. Descriptive and inferential statistics will be covered as well as basic computer applications in criminal justice.

MCJ 6120. Theories of Crime and Delinquency (3)
Course focuses on a review of classical and current theories of criminology and delinquency and the underlying assumptions of each. Advancements in profiling and classification as well as other applications of theoretical models will be studied.

MCJ 6130. Law and Social Control (3)
Course focuses on the nature of law and legal institutions and the relationships between law and social control. Concepts of law and justice from the perspectives of its effects on the American criminal justice system will be investigated as well as the public policy concerns of laws and their relationship to our society.

MCJ 6140. Technology and Innovation in Criminal Justice (3)
Course explores the latest developments in technology and innovations in criminal justice. Included will be current developments in forensic science, i.e. DNA and the use of computer applications in criminal justice. Specific topics will be adjusted as new technologies arrive. Emphasis will be on impact and management rather than the strict science of the protocols.

MCJ 6150. Diversity Issues in Criminal Justice (3)
Course will sensitize and educate criminal justice professionals to issues of diversity. It explores the cross-cultural contact that criminal justice professionals have with citizens, victims, suspects, and co-workers, and the influence of culture, race and gender in the criminal justice field.

MCJ 6160. Seminar: Criminal Justice Policy Analysis (3)
Course focuses on crime as a political issue and examines how conflicting political philosophies influence criminal justice policy. Emphasis will be placed on how decisions in politics affect criminal justice organizations and how these decisions can be influenced by executive managers.

MCJ 6170. Seminar: Juvenile Justice (3)
Course examines the origins and development of the juvenile justice system with particular emphasis on the current policies and practices of the agencies which process young offenders through the juvenile system. Course examines a variety of political initiatives designed to reduce the jurisdiction of the juvenile court and enhance the due process rights of juveniles, and create a more punitive approach in the juvenile justice system.

MCJ 6180. Seminar: Contemporary Legal Issues (3)
This course exposes students to current law impacting criminal justice professionals. Topics will change depending upon current legal developments, but will include the general areas of corrections, law enforcement, employment, civil liability and criminal procedure.

MCJ 6210. Seminar: Judicial Administration (3)
Course exposes students to the dynamics of the American criminal courthouse. Students will examine how defense attorneys, defendants, prosecutors, judges, juries and others interact and contribute to America’s version of criminal case disposition. Course also examines the mechanics of criminal case processing, as well as how the court system is supposed to work, how it really does work, and the implications for American democracy.

MCJ 6220. Seminar: Contemporary Law Enforcement (3)
From the response and investigation of crimes committed, to the theory and practice involved in crime prevention, this course studies the development, theory, history and contemporary organizational structure of America’s law enforcement organizations.

MCJ 6230. Seminar: Contemporary Corrections (3)
Course provides an analysis of critical problems confronting contemporary adult corrections agencies. Course examines the problems of institutions, the affect of judicial intervention in corrections, alternatives to incarceration, and the political milieu in which this occurs.

MCJ 6240. Criminal Justice Planning, Budgeting, and Evaluation (3)
Course focuses on the planning, budgeting, and evaluation process in criminal justice organizations. Course examines both strategic and policy planning issues to include establishing organizational goals, budgeting, program implementation, evaluation and review.

MCJ 6250. Topics in Criminal Justice (1-3) Variable Title
Course focuses on a special issue or topic in criminal justice. A new topic/issue will be selected each time the course is offered.

MCJ 6255. Great Thoughts in Criminal Justice (3)
This course explores the broader context of criminal justice studies and concepts through the writings of significant authors and thinkers. Readings will focus on subjects such as justice, punishment, law and social control. Students will be expected to read extensively and participate in analysis and discussion. (May be repeated once for a total of 6 hours).

MCJ 6260. Graduate Readings (3)
Course allows the student to examine the scholarly literature on a subject of special interest under the supervision of a faculty member. Periodic progress meetings will be scheduled throughout the semester.
MCJ 6270. Project (3)
Course provides students with the opportunity to conduct original research in criminal justice or complete a project in a criminal justice agency. Methods learned in the masters program will be applied.

MCJ 6810. Experimental Course (1-3)
MCJ 6920. Workshops and Conference (1-3)

CRIMINAL JUSTICE MAJOR
BACHELOR DEGREE (B.S. OR B.A.)

» Program Prerequisite: Complete the Criminal Justice AA/AS Degree requirements.
» Minor: A minor or a double major is required. In lieu of a minor, an 18 hour emphasis may be selected in consultation with the chair and only in those instances where a specific minor is not offered by WSU.
» Grade Requirements: A grade of "C" or better in all courses required for this major in addition to an overall GPA for these courses of 2.50 or higher. Also refer to the general grade requirements for graduation on page 36.
» Credit Hour Requirements: A total of 120 credit hours is required for graduation – a minimum of 45 of these is required within the major. A total of 40 upper division credit hours is required (courses numbered 3000 and above) – 18 of these are required within the major.

Advisement
All Criminal Justice students are encouraged to meet with a faculty advisor at least annually for course and program advisement. Call 801-626-6146 for more information or to find an advisor.

Admission Requirements
Declare your program of study (see page 18). There are no special admission or application requirements for this program.

General Education
Refer to pages 36-41 for either Bachelor of Science or Bachelor of Arts requirements. The following course required for the Criminal Justice major will also satisfy general education requirements: CJ SS1010. The diversity requirement can be met by completing CJ 3040 or CJ 3360. The Scientific Inquiry (SI) requirement can be met by completing CJ 3600 and/or CJ 4980.

Course Requirements for B.S. or B.A. Degree
Students obtaining a major in Criminal Justice are required to complete 45 credit hours in courses with a CJ prefix. Of these, 18 credit hours must be upper division courses numbered 3000 or above.

Core Courses Required (21 credit hours)
CJ SS1010 Introduction to Criminal Justice (3)
CJ 1330 Criminal Law (3)
CJ 3270 Theories of Crime and Delinquency (3)
CJ SI3600 Criminal Justice Statistics (3)
or SOCS* SI3600 Social Statistics (3)
or PSY* SI3600 Statistics in Psychology (3)
or GERT* SI3600 Statistics in Gerontology (3)
CJ 4200 Ethical Issues in Criminal Justice (3)
CJ SI4980 Research Methods (3)
CJ 4990 Senior Seminar (3)

* Will meet the core requirement but may not be counted if used in another department (will not receive CJ credit).
 Statistics prerequisite.
 Senior standing required.

CONCENTRATIONS
Select one concentration and complete 15 credit hours or select a general concentration of 15 credit hours from any combination. Courses taken in one concentration can not be used to fill the requirement in another concentration.

Law Enforcement (15 credit hours)
CJ 1340 Criminal Investigation (3)
CJ 1350 Intro to Forensic Science (3)
CJ 2860/4860 Field Experience (3-6)
CJ 3020 Criminal Justice Management (3)
CJ DV3040 Community Policing (3)
CJ 4100 Laws of Arrest, Search, & Seizure (3)
CJ 4300 History of Law Enforcement (3)
CJ 4160 Constitutional Rights & Responsibilities (3)

Corrections (15 credit hours)
CJ 2330 Juvenile Justice (3)
CJ 2860/4860 Field Experience (3-6)
CJ 3020 Criminal Justice Management (3)
CJ 3060 Corrections in the Community (3)
CJ 3140 Corrections Law (3)
CJ 3350 The American Jail (3)
CJ DV3360 Prisons-Contemporary Issues & Dilemmas (3)

Law and Justice (15 credit hours)
CJ 2350 Laws of Evidence (3)
CJ 2360 Juvenile Law (3)
CJ 2860/4860 Field Experience (3-6)
CJ 3080 Criminal Courts (3)
CJ 3140 Corrections Law (3)
CJ 4000 Critical Legal Studies (3)
CJ 4100 Laws of Arrest, Search and Seizure (3)
CJ 4160 Constitutional Rights & Responsibilities (3)

Forensic Science (14 credit hours)
Those students wishing to pursue a concentration in forensics will have the option of choosing one of two tracks:
I. Forensic Science I / Laboratory - for those wishing to predominantly work in a crime lab, including chemical analysis, serology and DNA analysis.
II. Forensic Science II / Investigation - for those wishing to have a more general background and training in order to work in the field, including crime scene investigation, trace analysis, photography and general forensics.

Requirements for a concentration in Forensic Science/Laboratory:
This concentration requires a double major: one in Chemistry, Botany, Zoology, or Microbiology and a major in Criminal Justice with a concentration in Forensic Science. No minor is required. The CJ major requires all of the core courses and other requirements for other CJ majors as well as the following 14 credit hours for a concentration.
CJ 1350 Scientific Investigation Principles (3)
CJ 2350 Laws of Evidence (3)
CJ 4110 Forensic Science I (4)
CJ 4120 Forensic Science II (4)

Requirements for a Concentration in Forensic Science/Investigation:
This concentration requires a student to complete a major in Criminal Justice with a 14 credit hour concentration in Forensics as outlined above. Additionally, a student must complete 10 credit hours of chemistry sequence, either Chemistry 1210 and 1220 (Principles of Chemistry I and II) or Chemistry 1110 (Elementary Chemistry) and Chemistry 1120 (Elementary Organic Bio-Chemistry); and then, in consultation with a forensics advisor, select an additional 18 credit hours comprised of courses specifically geared towards field investigation in forensics. These courses could include regularly scheduled courses, short courses or workshops such as:

Weber State University 2006 – 2007 Catalog
- Photography
- Forensic Anthropology
- Ballistics/Firearms
- Trace Evidence
- Footprints
- Blood Pattern Analysis
- Fingerprinting
- DNA
- Archaeology

No minor is required for students choosing to fulfill the requirement for Forensic Science/Investigation.

• General (15 credit hours)

Students selecting this option will be required to propose a total of 15 credit hours selected from a combination of the above. Students will be expected to provide a rationale for the specific combination of courses they select.

ELECTIVE COURSES

In addition to the 21 credit hours of core courses and the 15 credit hours in each area of concentration, students are required to complete an additional 9 credit hours of criminal justice courses (with CJ prefixes - courses may not be counted twice) to be selected from the following:

- CJ 1340 Criminal Investigation (3)
- CJ 1350 Intro to Forensic Science (3)
- CJ 2110 Intro to Security (3)
- CJ 2330 Juvenile Justice (3)
- CJ 2350 Laws of Evidence (3)
- CJ 2360 Juvenile Law & Procedure (3)
- CJ 2810/4810 Experimental Courses (1-3)
- CJ 2860/4860 Field Experience (3-6)
- CJ 2920/4920 Short Courses, Workshops (1-4)
- CJ 3020 Criminal Justice Management (3)
- CJ DV3040 Community Policing (3)
- CJ 3060 Corrections in the Community (3)
- CJ 3080 Criminal Courts (3)

- CJ 4850* Directed Reading, Special Projects (1-3)
- CJ 4900 Current Issues in Criminal Justice (3)
- CJ 4950 Field Trips/Travel Study (1-6)

* Requires Department Chair approval.

Additional credit for P.O.S.T. certification may be obtained but does not count toward major, minor or BIS.

- CJ 1070 Law Enforcement/Corrections Academy, Part I (3)
- CJ 1080 Law Enforcement/Corrections Academy, Part II (3)

CRIMINAL JUSTICE

DEPARTMENTAL HONORS

- Program Prerequisite: Enroll in the General Honors Program and complete 6 hours of General Honors courses (see the Honors Program on page 43).
- Grade Requirements: Maintain an overall GPA of 3.3.

Credit Hour Requirements: Fulfill the requirements for the Criminal Justice major, of which at least 12 hours must be completed on an Honors basis. A student may receive Honors credit in any CJ course numbered 2000 or above.* In addition, complete 3 hours in Directed Readings (CJ 4850) and 3 hours in Criminal Justice Seminar (CJ 4990).

* Permission from the department chair must be received before registering in a course for Honors credit. A written agreement should be reached with the appropriate professor regarding the work expected for Honors credit. (See the Honors Program on page 43.)

CRIMINAL JUSTICE

MINOR

- Grade Requirements: A grade of "C" or better in courses used toward the minor in addition to an overall GPA for these courses of 2.50 or higher.
- Credit Hour Requirements: Minimum of 18 credit hours in Criminal Justice courses (CJ prefix).

CJ SS1010. Introduction to Criminal Justice (3)
An introduction to the history, processes and functions of the American criminal justice system and its primary components, law enforcement, courts, and corrections.

CJ 1070. Law Enforcement/ Corrections
Academy, Part I (3)
Core curriculum to provide students the basic training required to certify as a reserve or special function officer. P.O.S.T. certification only. Register through the Division of Continuing Education. Does not count for CJ credit toward major, minor or BIS.

CJ 1080. Law Enforcement/ Corrections
Academy, Part II (3)
Police officer curriculum required to certify as a peace officer with full police powers. (A student must have completed the Core curriculum, CJ 1070, to register for this course.) P.O.S.T. certification only. Register through the Division of Continuing Education. Does not count for CJ credit toward major, minor or BIS.

CJ 1330. Criminal Law (3)
Surveys the American criminal justice system. Elements of crime, defenses, historical foundation, limits, purposes and functions of criminal law.

CJ 1340. Criminal Investigation (3)
This is an introduction to Criminal Investigation including the necessary functions of interviewing witnesses and suspects, techniques in the collection and preservation of evidence, crime scene processing including some post-crime scene processing of evidence, follow-up investigation and recent techniques of enhancing the criminal investigation function.

CJ 1350. Introduction to Forensic Science (3)
An introduction to the various types of physical evidence commonly encountered at crime scenes (e.g., fingerprints, hairs, fibers, drugs, glass, etc.), including discussion of comparison and identification techniques (i.e., optical examination/comparison, instrumental analysis, and many chemical processes) used in the analysis of such physical evidence.

CJ 2110. Introduction to Security (3)
Examination of the diverse components which make up the security function. Principles and concepts in physical security, loss control and crime prevention.

CJ 2330. Juvenile Justice (3)
Origin, philosophy, and development of the juvenile justice system, particularly the juvenile court. Emphasis placed upon laws, detention, adjudication, probation, after-care, foster homes, and other alternative correctional practices.

CJ 2350. Laws of Evidence (3)
Deals with the principles and rules of law emphasizing evidentiary problems related to criminal cases.

CJ 2360. Juvenile Law and Procedure (3)
Juvenile justice system emphasizing Utah law and procedure. Studies differences between juvenile and adult systems, delinquent acts, juvenile treatment as adults and role and function of probation, youth corrections, family services and the community.

CJ 2810. Experimental Course (1-3)
This number is used for newly developed experimental courses.

CJ 2860/4860. Criminal Justice Field Experience (3)
Field experience in an internship with city, county, and state criminal justice agencies. Registration is by permission of the instructor. Students may take this course for a combined total of six (6) credit hours, with consent of instructor.

CJ 2920. Short Courses, Workshops, Institutes and Special Programs (1-4)
Consult the semester class schedule for the current offering under this number. The specific title with the credit authorized will appear in the semester schedule and on the student transcript.

CJ 3020. Criminal Justice Management (3)
Current command level problems and trends in criminal justice organizations and management including work environment, motivation, leadership, morale, discipline, evaluation, planning, and functioning of line and staff.

CJ DV3040. Community Policing (3)
Problem solving and the development of community trust are integral to community policing. The philosophy, concepts and methods in support of identifying the issues in a community that relate to crime are outlined and studied. The goal of creating healthy neighborhoods and sustaining the quality of neighborhood life are explained in detail. Crime is pervasive in American society, but victims and criminals have identified characteristics. These characteristics impact certain neighborhoods more than others. These characteristics and issues surrounding them are explored and researched.

CJ 3060. Corrections in the Community (3)
An overview of community based correctional programs focusing upon the historical origin, development, and current practices in probation, parole, the halfway house, work and educational release, as well as furlough programs.

CJ 3080. Criminal Courts (3)
Study of the American criminal trial-level court. Students shall examine the theory and reality of criminal court processing including an in-depth look at the roles and practices of prosecutors, defense attorneys, and judges. Special attention will be paid to the relationships among these actors, the system's dependency on plea bargaining, and jury behavior.

CJ 3110. Issues in Security and Loss Prevention (3)
Analytical evaluation of the major types and causes of internal and external crimes occurring in business enterprises. Examination of motives and methods of those committing profit-draining crimes.

CJ 3130. Investigation of Computer Crime (3)
Deals with the threats, vulnerabilities, and risks of unauthorized system access. Understanding the modus operandi of criminal acts associated with computer crime and how to investigate them. Cryptography and network security will be closely examined.

CJ 3140. Corrections Law (3)
This course studies the law as it pertains to the corrections field. It includes an examination of the 8th Amendment rights and law effecting probation, incarceration, and parole.
CJ 3270. Theories of Crime and Delinquency (3)
Study of the nature, extent, causes, and treatment of crime.

CJ 3300. Victimology (3)

CJ 3350. The American Jail (3)
Course critically examines the American jail with particular emphasis on history, management, operations and contemporary issues.

CJ DV3360. Prisons - Contemporary Issues and Dilemmas (3)
A course which focuses upon the contemporary adult prison with a particular emphasis upon current issues, problems and dilemmas. Diversity issues such as integration of the prison work force by women and minorities as well as the problems of elderly, women, and minority inmates will be examined.

CJ 3400. Drugs and Crime (3)
The historic, economic, social and political roles of legal and illegal drugs; their contribution to crime of many kinds, accidents, and impacts on the criminal justice system; production and distribution systems; efforts to combat; decriminalization, prevention and treatment.

CJ SI3600. Criminal Justice Statistics (3)
An introduction to descriptive and inferential statistics and data analysis for use in criminal justice and the social sciences. Prerequisite: WSU Math Competency.

CJ 4000 Critical Legal Studies (3)
Critical Legal Studies comprehends the development and application of criminal law and criminal justice institutions in the United States from a critical perspective. The course begins with a short review of slavery and race, civil rights and civil liberties, and the transformation of legal thought in America. Readings provide a perspective for how the criminal law and justice system are used to bolster the lives of the affluent classes while remaining oblivious or acting as a detriment to the lives of disadvantaged, under-represented and marginalized members of society. The course concludes with readings that provide an understanding for the meaning of justice, the role of the law in fostering a more just society, and the legal tools available to the advocate of social change to propose changes through legal reform.

CJ 4060. Special Problems in Criminal Justice (3)
Causes and prevention of white collar, organized crime, gangs and other current interest topics selected by the instructor. May be taken multiple times under new topic.

CJ 4100. Laws of Arrest, Search and Seizure (3)
Critically examines case law and statutes dealing with arrest, search and seizure and liability concerns for officers in this area.

CJ 4110. Forensic Science I (4) (3 hr lecture, 1 hr lab)
Advanced fingerprint techniques (AFIS, chemical development, etc.), trace evidence, firearms identification principles, expert testimony. Prerequisite: CJ 1350.

CJ 4120. Forensic Science II (4) (3 hr lecture, 1 hr lab)

CJ 4160. Constitutional Rights and Responsibilities (3)
This course critically examines the 5th and 6th Amendments to the United States Constitution, emphasizing the right to counsel, right to silence and right against self-incrimination. It examines citizens' rights and officer's responsibility and liability in connection with those rights.

CJ 4200. Ethical Issues in Criminal Justice (3)
Critically examines selected criminal justice ethical issues such as capital punishment, official corruption, use of deadly force, discretion and deception by the police. Prerequisite: CJ SS1010.

CJ 4300. History of Law Enforcement (3)
An introduction to the history of America's law enforcement organizations, stressing the development, community issues, and organizational designs. The early leaders in policing and the early crime problems in America will be discussed and studied. From slave patrols prior to the Civil War to the U.S. Marshals of the old west, police development issues will be presented.

CJ 4700. Comparative Criminal Justice Systems (3)
Compares United States criminal justice system with other international systems from throughout the world. Prerequisite: CJ SS1010.

CJ 4810. Experimental Course (1-3)
This number is used for newly developed experimental courses.

CJ 4830. Directed Readings and Special Projects (1-3)
Assigned reading or project with evaluation by faculty member. Requires approval of the Department Chair.

CJ 4860/2860. Criminal Justice Field Experience (3)
Field experience with city, county, and state criminal justice agencies. Registration is by permission of the instructor. Students may take this course for a combined total of six (6) credit hours, with consent of instructor.

CJ 4900. Current Issues in Criminal Justice (3)
In-depth study of current theoretical issues in criminal justice. Specific offering will be identified by name and will be listed on student's transcript with authorized credit. May be taken multiple times under new topic.

CJ 4920. Short Courses, Workshops, Institutes and Special Programs (1-4)
(See CJ 2920 for description.)

CJ 4950. Field Trips/Travel Study (1-6)
Designed to provide students with access to both national and international law enforcement agencies, prisons, detention centers, courts and institutions dealing with criminals and delinquents - both as individuals and society. Field trips include 2-3 weeks of intense instruction and then 3-5 days of on-site visits, interviews, and lectures by practitioners in the field. Course may be repeated for a total of six (6) hours of criminal justice credit. Additional hours will be counted toward 120 elective hours of study.

CJ SI4980. Research Methods in Criminal Justice (3)
In-depth study of current theoretical issues in criminal justice. Prerequisites: CJ SS1010, either CJ SI3600 or SOC SI3600 or PSY SI3600 or GERT SI3600, and junior or senior standing.
The Department of Economics is described in the John B. Goddard School of Business and Economics section of the catalog and offers two different degree programs. The career field selected will determine the educational goals a student must set and will be an important element in deciding which of the many avenues towards a bachelor’s degree available in economics is best suited for you. The Bachelor’s Degree with a General Economics Major is described in this, the Social Science section of the catalog. See the John B. Goddard School of Business and Economics section of the catalog for a complete description of the programs leading to a Bachelor’s Degree with a Business Economics Major.

Economics provides general analysis of decision making where resource constraints are present. Within the Social Sciences, the field of economics is perhaps the most rigorous in terms of the use and application of mathematical and statistical reasoning. Students with a bachelor’s degree in economics are generally prepared to take entry level jobs in any area of business, but are particularly prepared for jobs that call for data analysis, pricing, purchasing, and report writing. Economists are often employed in private business firms in the financial, retailing, and industrial sectors. A complete career guide is available from the department chairperson. A degree in General Economics is also regarded by graduate business schools as excellent preparation for advanced work toward an MBA, as well as advanced degrees in other business related disciplines such as human resource management, public administration, finance, and international business. Students seeking an advanced degree in economics, law, other social and behavioral sciences, urban and regional planning, actuarial science, etc., should also investigate the Business Economics Major described in the John B. Goddard School of Business and Economics section of the catalog.

GENERAL ECONOMICS MAJOR

SOCIAL SCIENCE EMPHASIS

BACHELOR DEGREE (B.S. OR B.A.)

- Program Prerequisite: Not required.
- Minor: See specific programs.
- Grade Requirements: Candidates for the bachelor of arts and bachelor of science degrees must complete all prerequisite and required business and economics courses with a grade of “C-” or higher. In addition, the overall business and economics GPA must be 2.5 or higher.
- Credit Hour Requirements: A total of 120 credit hours is required for graduation. A total of 40 upper division credit hours is required (courses numbered 3000 and above).

Admission Requirements

Declare your program of study (see page 18). There are no special admission or application requirements for this program.

Advisement

Advisement is required. Contact the Department Chair for information on transfer credits, major emphasis selection, major requirements, and complete information concerning current graduation requirements. Graduation contract forms are available in the Department of Economics office, WB 226. All economics majors should meet each semester with the Department Chair, Dr. Cliff Nowell (801-626-6488; WB 234).

General Education

Refer to pages 36-41 for either Bachelor of Science or Bachelor of Arts requirements. The following courses required for the General Economics major will also satisfy general education requirements: ECON SS2010, SS2020 (Social Science). ECON AI1740 is recommended to fulfill the Senate Bill Requirement in American Institutions.

MATH QL1050 is a prerequisite for ECON SS2010, QUAN SI2400, and QUAN SI2600. Students seeking a major in Economics should plan to take the necessary mathematics courses as early as possible in their program of study.

Course Requirements for General Economics B.S. or B.A. Degree

(see also Alternative Emphases below)

Economics Courses Required (24 credit hours)

- ECON SS2010 Principles of Microeconomics (3)
- ECON SS2020 Principles of Macroeconomics (3)
- ECON 4010 Intermediate Microeconomic Theory (3)
- ECON 4020 Intermediate Macroeconomic Theory (3)
- ECON 4980 Research Methods (3)
- QUAN SI2400 Business Calculus (3)
- or ECON 3030 Managerial Economics (3)
- QUAN SI2600 Business Statistics I (3)
- QUAN SI3610 Business Statistics II (3)

Upper Division Elective Courses (15 credit hours)

Select from the following:

- ECON 3090 History of Economic Thought (3)
- ECON 3110 International Trade (3)
- ECON 3120 Int’l Finance & Monetary Systems (3)
- ECON 3200 Money & Banking (3)
- ECON 3400 Labor Economics (3)
- ECON 3410 Women in the World Economy (3)

A study of the interrelated systems that constitute the earth's surface environment, e.g., landforms, weather, climate, natural vegetation, hydrology, and soils, and their integrated patterns of world distribution.

The study of different places, countries, and regions of the world. Addresses topics relating to natural environment, ethnic diversity, and regional differences in subjects related to culture, gender, age, class, social structure, spatial organization, and economic activities. Present social and cultural conditions within the United States and Canada are analyzed and compared.

The study of specific geographic regions, utilizing field observations, lectures, and individual student research.

The advanced study of the processes that produce global climate patterns; analysis of the prospects and possible repercussions of global climate change; and an examination of climatic anomalies such as El Niño, hurricanes, tornadoes and other unusual phenomena. Prerequisite: GEOG PS/SI1000, or GEO PS/SI1130, or the equivalent.

A study of a global and local environmental issues such as changing air and water quality, food production, waste management, and other topics. The course identifies strategies for creating healthier and more sustainable ways of living within our natural and built environments. Prerequisite: GEOG PS/SI1000, or BTNY LS1403, or the equivalent, or consent of the instructor.

Analysis of physical properties, values, economic, and legal issues associated with wetland environments. Since wetlands in different places have many different attributes, a detailed examination is made of wetland environments in different parts of the United States.
GEOG 3080. Arid Lands (3) S
A study of the characteristics and variant topography, geology, and climatic conditions of the Earth’s arid lands. Examines the spatial location of arid regions and their climatic controlling factors. Weather patterns, hydrology, and eolian processes will be discussed along with sediment transportation and deposition of arid environments. The course will also review the formation and formation along with soils of arid zones. The course concludes with a discussion on the desertification and the impact of human intervention in the misuse of arid lands, while discussing preservation versus reclamation of these regions. Prerequisite: GEOG PS/SI1000, or GEO PS1060, or the equivalent, or consent of the instructor.

GEOG 3090. Arctic and Alpine Environments (3) S
An examination of the physical environments of high altitude and high latitude places, the ways in which humans interact with these environments, and their broader roles within the large Earth systems. Topics will include causes and consequences of avalanches, climatic characteristics of the Arctic, glacier behavior, sea ice, and the responses of human physiology to high altitudes. Prerequisite: GEOG PS/SI1000, or GEO PS1060, or the equivalent, or consent of the instructor.

GEOG 3210. Urban Geography (3) F
The study of cities as elements of the landscape, their distribution, location, and structure, as related to their physical setting, economic function, and cultural inheritance.

GEOG 3300. Historical Geography of the United States (3) S
A geographic analysis of America’s past featuring an examination of cultural development in different parts of the United States and how this has produced many distinct regional landscapes throughout the country.

GEOG 3360. Economic Geography (3) S
The spatial structure of the world’s resources, production, commerce, and economic problems.

GEOG 3390. Aerial Photo Interpretation (3) (Offered as needed)
The use of aerial photos to interpret geographic phenomena. One lecture and two 3-hour labs a week.

GEOG 3450. Cartography (3) F
An introduction to map making, to include the history of cartography, the development of map components with emphasis on map projections, grid systems, scale, direction, and symbol design. Particular attention will be paid to the creation of maps using both manual and digital (computer and computer-assisted) techniques. The course also will deal with map reading skills for spatial analysis, orientation, and land navigation. One lecture and two 3-hour labs per week.

GEOG 3460. Advanced Cartography (3) S
The advanced study of maps and their role in portraying geographic data. Emphasis will be placed on various digital (computer and computer-aided) mapping techniques that categorize geographic data and illustrate this information in map form. The course will also examine cartographic visualization, databases, and production. Prerequisite: GEOG 3450 or permission of instructor. One lecture and two 3-hour labs per week.

GEOG 3500. Geography of Utah (3) F
A study of the physical environment and activities of man in Utah.

GEOG DV3540. Geography of Latin America (3) F
Addresses topics relating to Latin America’s natural environment, ethnic diversity, and regional differences in culture, gender, age, class, social structure, spatial organization, and economic activities. Current issues relating to culture and society in Latin America are analyzed within the context of its colonial inheritance and its future prospects.

GEOG DV3590. Geography of Europe (3) F
Addresses topics relating to Europe’s natural environment, ethnic diversity, and regional differences in culture, gender, age, class, social structure, wealth, spatial organization, and economic activities. Current issues and social conditions within Europe and its major subdivisions are discussed and analyzed.

GEOG DV3620. Geography of Russia and the Former USSR (3) (alternate years)
Addresses topics relating to Russia’s natural environment, ethnic diversity, and regional differences in culture, gender and age structure, class structure, spatial organization, and economic activities. Current social and economic conditions in Russia and its Near Abroad are analyzed within the context of the breakup of the former Soviet Union.

GEOG DV3640. Geography of Asia (3)

History is a record of political, social and cultural events and achievements of humankind. Historians analyze and evaluate this record in an attempt to understand and interpret the present.

The history offerings are designed to: provide adequate courses to prepare teachers; prepare students who plan to do graduate work; and provide courses which contribute to the general education of all students.

History Courses Required (15 credit hours)
- HIST SS1500 World History to 1500 C.E. (3)
- HIST SS/DV1510 World History from 1500 C.E. to the Present (3)
- HIST 2700 History of the U.S. to 1877 (3)
- HIST 2710 History of the U.S. since 1877 (3)

All the above should be taken before upper-division course work (courses numbered 3000 and above). HIST 4990 Senior Seminar (3)

* Should be taken during senior year.

Upper Division Elective Courses (21 credit hours)
Select at least one course in each area.

Teaching majors must select either HIST DV4110, 4120 or 4130 as part of their program.

- North American History
  - HIST DV3010 American Indian History: 1300 to Present (3)
  - HIST DV3030 African-American History (3)
  - HIST DV3050 History of U.S. Latinos (3)
  - HIST DV3070 Women in American History: 1600 to Present (3)
History majors are encouraged to also take POLS AI1100, American National Government (3).

History Teaching majors should note that HIST 4500 is required for completion of the Secondary Education Certification program.

Students planning to secure an advanced degree in History are strongly recommended to study a foreign language while an undergraduate and take a computer course.

A written assignment on this material will also be completed. No more than three hours will count towards a major or minor. Prerequisite: Instructor approval.

HIST 4890. Cooperative Work Experience (1-6)
Academic credit for advanced internship opportunities in History-related careers. Grade, credit, and work experience to be determined in consultation with department chair.

HIST 4920. Short Courses, Workshops, and Special Programs (1-6)
Consult the semester class schedule for the current offering under this number. The specific title and credit authorized will appear on the student transcript.

HIST 4930. History Workshop (1-5)
Offered as needed to give background history to students who are studying history in timely subjects of world affairs. May be repeated for credit more than once with different topics. Only ten hours of this course number can be applied toward graduation.

HIST 4980. History Honors Senior Project (2)
Designed for the History Honors student and will be taken in conjunction with History Seminar, HIST 4990. It will give the Honors student opportunity to develop more depth and skills in History on a Honors level of performance.

HIST 4990. Senior Seminar (3)
A seminar for History majors requiring the completion of an extensive thesis project.
The History Department offers the following graduate-level courses primarily designed for those who have been accepted into the WSU Master of Education program. Credit will not be given if previously taken at an undergraduate level.

HIST 6010. Colonial America (3)
The colonial origins of the United States to 1763.

HIST 6020. The Era of the American Revolution 1763-1800 (3)
Causes of American Revolution, including the military, diplomatic and social aspects; the formation of the Union under the Articles of Confederation; the Constitution; and the Federalist era.

HIST 6040. The Era of the Civil War and Reconstruction 1840-1877 (3)
Slavery and the causes of the Civil War with attention to the political, economic, social, and military aspects of the conflict, including the period of Reconstruction to 1877.

HIST 6130. History of Utah (3)
A study of Utah history from its Native American beginnings through the 20th Century, emphasizing political, economic and social developments.

HIST 6590. Middle Eastern History (3)
The Middle East from the rise of Islam to the present with emphasis on the 19th and 20th centuries.

HIST 6610. History of Africa (3)
Africa from earliest times to the twentieth century, with emphasis on the Sub-Sahara from its ancient kingdoms through the travails of the slave trade, European colonialism, and the independence movement.

HIST 6710. Reading Seminar in American History (3)
When offered will focus on a specific subject in American History. It is assumed that these topics would generally be non-repetitive or repeated only infrequently based on the demand for the course and the instructor assigned to it. Students would be assigned readings on various aspects of the topic and respond through discussion in a seminar setting and written work.

HIST 6720. Reading Seminar in European History (3)
When offered will focus on a specific subject in European History. It is assumed that these topics would generally be non-repetitive or repeated only infrequently based on the demand for the course and the instructor assigned to it. Students would be assigned readings on various aspects of the topic and respond through discussion in a seminar setting and written work.

HIST 6760. Reading Seminar in World History (3)
When offered will focus on a specific subject in World History. It is assumed that these topics would generally be non-repetitive or repeated only infrequently based on the demand for the course and the instructor assigned to it. Students would be assigned readings on various aspects of the topic and respond through discussion in a seminar setting and written work.

HIST 6830. Directed Readings (1-3)
Independent readings under the supervision of a department member on special topics in History. For each hour of credit approximately 1500 pages of material will be read. A written assignment on this material will also be completed. Prerequisite: Instructor approval.

Political Science
Political Science, in the broadest sense, is the study of politics particularly as it relates to governments and people. Political scientists study governments: The origins and preconditions for governments, the growth and evolution of governments, and the decline and conflict among governments. Political scientists also are interested in how governments are structured, how governments make decisions, the policies that result from political decisions and the consequences of these policies, and how governments manage societal and international conflicts. Political scientists also study people: Their values and positions on issues, their preferences among candidates, their support for public officials, and their appraisals of their government. True to their oldest academic traditions, political scientists retain their concern with the fundamental questions of how governments ought to be constituted, and how they can best serve their citizens.

The study of political science has value in several different ways. First, it contributes to a solid liberal arts education and preparation for citizenship. The Greek word "idiot" was used to refer to one who took no interest in the affairs of state. Today, no less than twenty centuries later, it is incumbent upon all useful citizens to learn something about the political system in which they will spend their lives. Educated people ought to know something of the nature of government even if they have no professional interest in political science.

Second, a degree in political science furnishes an excellent background for graduate study in political science, law, administration, business, and international relations. Political science helps students develop reasoning and analytical skills and build competence in oral and written expression. In addition, the department of political science requires students to acquire basic skills in statistical analysis and computer competency.

Third, there are some careers for which an extensive training in political science can be most useful. This is true especially for those planning to seek careers in higher education, the legal profession, state and local government, urban planning, the federal bureaucracy, journalism, the military, law enforcement, teaching, the civil service, or in any of the proliferating organizations that seek to monitor the political processes to influence content of public policy. Further, the training students receive in political science will be useful to students no matter what their ultimate career choices. The comprehensive career guide, Careers and the study of Political Science, is available from the department chair.

Internships
Special projects and internship programs are offered to provide students practical understanding of political processes in governmental organizations. Many students have received practical training and gained valuable knowledge by working with United States senators, members of Congress, and Utah State senators and representatives. Moreover, some students work as interns in City and County administrations and in the Utah Legal Services office in Ogden.
Pre-Law

The pre-law advisement program is designed to assist students in scheduling courses, in preparing for the law school admissions test, and in obtaining admission at one of the nationally recognized law schools. Data on the placement of graduates in law schools show the success and the immense value of the program to students (Dr. Frank Guliuzza acts as the Pre-Law Advisor.)

POLITICAL SCIENCE MAJOR AND POLITICAL SCIENCE TEACHING MAJOR

BACHELOR DEGREE (B.S. OR B.A.)

- Program Prerequisite: Not required for Political Science major.
  - Political Science Teaching majors must meet the Teacher Education admission and certification requirements (see Teacher Education Department). Teaching Majors are also required to take HIST 4500, Teaching Social Studies in Grades 5-12, for a total of 42 semester hours including HIST 4500.

- Minor: Required
- Grade Requirements: Political Science majors must have an overall GPA of 2.00 and a "C" or better grade in courses used toward the major (a grade of "C-" is not acceptable). Political Science Teaching Majors must achieve an overall GPA of 3.00 for admission to the Teacher Education program.

- Credit Hour Requirements: A total of 120 credit hours is required for graduation; 40 upper division credit hours are required (courses numbered 3000 and above). Political Science majors are required to take 39 credit hours within the major; teaching majors must also take HIST 4500, Teaching Social Studies in Grades 5-12, for a total of 42 credit hours.

Advisement

All Political Science students are required to meet with a faculty advisor at least annually for course and program advisement. Call 801-626-6694 for more information or to schedule an appointment. Teaching majors are encouraged to also consult with advisors in the Jerry and Vickie Moyes College of Education (call 801-626-6269).

Admission Requirements

Declare your program of study (see page 18). There are no special admission or application requirements for the Political Science major. Teaching majors must meet the Teacher Education admission and certification requirements (see Teacher Education Department).

General Education

Refer to pages 36-41 for either Bachelor of Science or Bachelor of Arts requirements. The following courses will fulfill both general education and program requirements: POLS SS2100, POLS SS2200, and POLS SS2300. Consult with a department advisor for specific general education guidelines.

Students majoring or minoring in Political Science or Philosophy who transfer from another institution and who intend to graduate from WSU will be required to take, in the case of the minor, at least one class, and in the case of the major, at least two classes at WSU. These classes must be taken during the calendar year immediately preceding graduation.

AP credit for high school American Government courses will be accepted for Political Science AI1100. It will count toward the total hours required for graduation and count toward the total of 39 credit hours required for a Political Science major. A score of “4” or above is required.

Course Requirements for B.S. or B.A.

Core Courses Required (15 credit hours)

Students may take up to three hours in 4830, three hours in 4800, and eight hours from 4860. No more than ten total hours from POLS 4830,
POLS 4800, and POLS 4860 may be counted toward the total requirement of 39 credit hours for Political Science Major/Teaching Major; no more than five total hours for the minor in Political Science. HIST 3230 may be counted as History credit and PHIL 3200 may be counted as Philosophy credit, or either may be counted as Political Science credit, but not both.

Suggested Course Sequence
The following suggested course sequence is provided to assist students in planning their schedules. Use this only as a guideline and be sure to consult with an advisor.

Freshman Year
- POLS AI1100 (3), and one other introductory course such as POLS SS2100 (3), POLS SS2200 (3), or POLS SS2300 (3). It is suggested that students seek advice concerning the general education requirements of the University during the first two years of study.

Sophomore Year
- One of the introductory courses: POLS SS2100 (3), POLS SS2200 (3), or POLS SS2300 (3). At this point it is suggested that each student meet with an advisor within the Political Science Department and plan out the three year course load within the five subfields, depending on the area(s) that the individual student is interested in pursuing. Continue to complete the courses necessary towards fulfilling the general education requirements of the University.

Junior Year
- Continue with the planned courses for area of interest within the five subfields to meet program requirements. Students should start concentrating on the upper division hours required by the University to meet graduation requirements along with those hours required for their minor area of study. POLS SS3990 (3) may also be taken at this time.

Senior Year
- POLS SS3990 (3), if not taken in the Junior year, and POLS 4990 (3). Finish the planned courses within the five subfields to make sure a minimum of 39 Political Science credit hours have been met.

Political Science Departmental Honors

- Program Prerequisite: Enroll in the General Honors Program and complete 10 hours of General Honors courses (see the Honors Program on page 43).
- Grade Requirements: Maintain an overall GPA of 3.3.
- Credit Hour Requirements: Fulfill the requirements for the Political Science departmental major, of which at least 20 hours must be completed on an Honors basis. A student may receive Political Science Honors credit in any upper division Political Science course, including Directed Readings, POLS 4830 (for a maximum total of 3 hours).
- Senior Paper: A senior paper must be submitted by each student graduating with department honors. This will require the establishment of a department committee of three faculty members for evaluation and review. In addition, each student will present their paper to the department faculty.
- Permission from the department chair should be sought before registering in courses for Honors credit. A written agreement should be reached with the appropriate professor regarding the work expected for Honors credit. (See the Honors Program on page 43.)

Social Science Composite Teaching Major

See the Department of History section in this catalog for program requirements.

Political Science Requirements for Minor

Political Science Courses Required (6 credit hours)
- POLS SS1100 American National Government (3)
- and one of the following
  - POLS SS2100 Intro to International Politics (3)
  - POLS SS2200 Intro to Comparative Politics (3)
  - POLS SS2300 Intro to Political Theory (3)

Electives (15 credit hours)

Refer to the elective area listings under the Political Science B.S./B.A. program. Select at least two courses from area 1 and/or 4 (combined) and at least two courses from areas 2, 3, and/or 5 (combined).

Choose one additional class from any area or from POLS electives.

Summary of Electives Required

GROUP 1 (select two courses)

1. American Government and Public Administration
   - POLS 3600 Political Parties (3)

POLS 4860  Internships (1-6)
POLS 4830  Directed Readings (1-3)
POLS 4940  Topics in American Politics & Thought (1-3)

Only 5 credit hours total from POLS 4800, POLS 4830, and POLS 4860 can apply toward minor.

INTERDISCIPLINARY MINORS
The Department of Political Science participates in the Asian Studies, European Studies, Latin American Studies and Legal Studies Minor Programs and the Urban and Regional Planning Emphasis Program. Students who wish to enroll in one of these programs should indicate their desire to do so with the program coordinator who will help them work out a proper combination of courses to fit their particular needs. (See the Interdisciplinary Programs section of this catalog.)

POLITICAL SCIENCE COURSES - POLS

POLS AI1100. American National Government (3)
A study of American political institutions, interests, ideals, and the processes through which policies are formulated and implemented.

POLS 2060. Freedoms (3)
An examination, at an introductory level, of the American judiciary and basic constitutional guarantees. Many of the specific cases used as examples will be drawn from the constitutionally fertile area of “school law.” This course will have theoretical and practical dimensions.

POLS SS2100. Introduction to International Politics (3)
Examines international relations by juxtaposing the traditional nation state model (nationalism, sovereignty, realism, BOP) with the newer model of “complex interdependence” (mutual vulnerability to economic interdependence, nuclear war and environmental dangers).

POLS SS2200. Introduction to Comparative Politics (3)
An introductory survey course that seeks to cover political institutions in the nations of the contemporary world; to compare and contrast political institutions in the free world, in the communist world, in the nations of the developing world, and in the authoritarian systems.

POLS SS2300. Introduction to Political Theory (3)
An examination of the project of political theory. The goals of the class are to gain an understanding of (1) classic questions of western political thought, (2) varying ways in which thinkers have gone about pursuing these questions (method of inquiry), and (3) critiques of the standing of these “classic questions.”

POLS 2920. Short Courses, Workshops, Institutes and Special Programs (1-3)
Consult the semester class schedule for the current offering under this number. The specific title and credit authorized will appear on the student transcript.

POLS 3060. Mock Trial (2)
An introduction to some of the basic principles of trial advocacy. Students will prepare for participation on the Weber State University Mock Trial team. May be repeated for a total of four hours.

POLS 3140. Foreign Policy of the United States (3)
An analysis of the making of American foreign policy with reference to the role and influences of beliefs, interests, public opinion, media and especially the institutional struggle between President & Congress. The challenges facing contemporary U.S. foreign policy will also be examined.

POLS 3150. Model United Nations (2)
A study of the issues before the current General Assembly of the United Nations as well as preparation for a particular nation’s (or nations’) position(s) on these issues in preparation for the Model United Nations of the Far West. May be repeated for 4 hours.

POLS 3210. Politics and Governments of Europe (3)
A study of European political systems with special emphasis on the politics and governments of the United Kingdom, France, and Germany.

POLS 3220. Politics and Governments of Asia (3)
A study of politics and governments of the major states in the area with particular reference to India, Japan, and China.

POLS 3290. Introduction to Politics and Governments of Developing Nations (3)
A survey of the political patterns of human beings in the process of modernization by studying the role of colonialism, charismatic leader, political parties, ideologies, military, civil service, and social and economic structures, and the impact of development on stability and integration of nations in Africa, Asia, and Latin America.

POLS 3330. American Political Thought (3)
Historical examination of American thought with stress on its influences on the development of the American Government.

POLS 3600. Political Parties (3)
A study of the organization and function of the American political parties, political organizations that play a role alongside political parties in the American political system, such as interest groups, and a comparative study of political parties in other countries.

POLS 3610. Campaigns and Elections (3)
A study of the electoral process in the United States with an examination of national institutional elections, state and local elections, as well as election rules. Also a study of campaigning techniques in elections at all levels.

POLS DV3630. Identity Politics (3)
A study of the nature of identity politics and its role in the political process. This course examines the interaction among diverse social groups and emphasizes the effect of socio-demographic differences on political decisions.

POLS 3700. Introduction to Public Administration (3)
Presents basic theories, concepts, and analysis of current practices and problems in governmental administration.

POLS 3750. Urban Government and Politics (3)
A study of local government organization and policy problems, with an emphasis on problems of the metropolitan areas.

PHILOSOPHY

The philosophy program offers courses in three general areas: 1) Liberal Education, teaches the ideas of influential past and contemporary thinkers who have sought to understand the world in its most fundamental aspects and our experience of it. These ideas examine the nature of truth, the limits of knowledge, what we count as real, standards of right and wrong, beauty and world religions. 2) Methodology emphasizes methods of sound practical reasoning, deductive logic and language analysis. 3) Application critically analyzes non-philosophical disciplines. Thus the philosophy of democracy analyzes the value assumptions behind democratic forms of government, while medical ethics seeks to identify and resolve dilemmas arising from conflicts between medical technology and quality of life.

Psychology Major and Psychology Teaching Major

BACHELOR DEGREE (B.S. OR B.A.)

- Program Prerequisite: None. Psychology Teaching majors and minors must meet the Teacher Education admission and certification requirements (see Teacher Education Department).
- Minor: Required, unless a student is a double major.
- Grade Requirements: A grade of "C" or better is required in all courses used to fulfill requirements for the psychology major or minor (a grade of "C-" is not acceptable). In addition an overall GPA for Psychology courses of 2.50 or higher is required. Also refer to the general grade requirements for graduation on page 36. Teaching majors must achieve an overall GPA of 3.00 for admission to the Teacher Education program.
- Credit Hour Requirements: The University requires a total of 30 credit hours for graduation. For psychology, a minimum of 30 credit hours from areas 1-6 (see Psychology Areas Table under the Department of Psychology) are required within the major.

Advisement

After declaring psychology as a major, each student is assigned an advisor. Psychology majors should consult with their advisor each semester prior to registration or as needed. Call your faculty advisor to schedule an appointment. Psychology teaching majors are encouraged to also consult with an advisor in the Jerry and Vickie Moyes College of Education (call 801-626-6269, Teacher Education Department).
Admission Requirements

Declare your program of study (see page 18). There are no special admission or application requirements for the psychology major. Teaching majors must meet the teacher education admission and certification requirements (see Teacher Education Department).

General Education

Refer to pages 36-41 for either Bachelor of Science or Bachelor of Arts requirements. The following courses in the major will also fulfill general education requirements: SS1010 and SS2000.

Course Requirements for B.S. or B.A.

Summary of Psychology Courses Required (36 credit hours)

Refer to the Psychology Areas Table on the previous page.

Area 1: All required courses – See Area 1 description (10 hrs)
Areas 2 and 3: One course in each area (6 hrs)
Areas 4 and 5: Two courses required in each area (10-12 hrs)

Elective Courses (8-10 credit hours)

May be taken from areas 2 - 6 in psychology.

Psychology Teaching majors are also required to take HIST 4500, Teaching Social Studies in Grades K-12, (3) in addition to the courses required by the Teacher Education program, and also PSY 4000 or 4090. PSY 4000 is recommended as the choice unless a case can be made for 4090.

PSYCHOLOGY

DEPARTMENTAL HONORS

» Program Prerequisite: Enroll in the General Honors Program and complete 6 hours of General Honors courses (see the Honors Program on page 43).

» Grade Requirements: Maintain an overall GPA of 3.3.

» Credit Hour Requirements: Meet the requirements below:

In fulfilling a Psychology major, complete at least 6 hours of courses on an Honors basis. In addition, complete at least 6 hours in PSY 4910 taken as Psychology Honors senior project. Typically students will outline the Honors project by the 2nd semester of their junior year. The purpose of the project is to do research of quality worthy of presentation to a professional meeting of psychologists such as UPA and RMPA. If the student is not able to present the research to one of these groups, they will present it to the faculty of the Department of Psychology and one outside member.

Options may be changed with the consent of the faculty advisor. Any course selected for Honors credit may be changed to a non-honors status within the first 6 weeks of the semester. (See the Honors Program on page 43.)

Elective Courses (minimum 15 credit hours)

Refer to the Psychology Areas Table on the previous page.

May be taken from any of the six areas in psychology. Only one course from Area 6 will be allowed to apply toward the minor.

Course Requirements for Teaching Minor

Required Courses (6 credit hours)

PSY SS1010 Intro Psychology (3)
PSY 4000 Advanced General Psychology (3)

Elective Courses (minimum 12 credit hours)

Refer to the Psychology Areas Table on the previous page.

Elective courses may be taken from Areas 1-5 with no more than one course in each of Areas 2-5.

Students who select the Psychology Teaching Minor must satisfy the Teacher Education admission and certification requirements (see Teacher Education Department).

Course Requirements for BIS Emphasis

Psychology Course Required

PSY SS1010 Introductory Psychology (3)

Elective Courses (minimum 18 credit hours)

Students are expected to take PSY 3600 and 3610 or equivalent to prepare them for the BIS senior capstone course.

Only one course from Area 6 will be allowed to apply toward the BIS.

(Also refer to the Bachelor of Integrated Studies Program.)

LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES

MINOR

The Department of Psychology participates in the Latin American Studies Program. A student who wishes to enroll should meet with the Latin American Studies Coordinator who will help the student work out a proper combination of courses to fit her/his particular needs. (See the Interdisciplinary Programs section of this catalog.)

A didactic introduction to the major theories of counseling and therapy plus an introduction to the research findings associated with effectiveness of therapy and principles of behavioral change. Required prerequisite: PSY SS1010 and PSY 3010.

PSY 4340. Skills and Techniques of Counseling (3)
Provides skills and techniques for counselors, ministers, social workers, and other professionals who serve a helping function. Three hours of lecture and two hours of lab/week. Recommended prerequisite: PSY 4310 or equivalent and permission of the instructor.

PSY 4380. 4390. Practicum (2-2)
Placement of students in state and community agencies for the purpose of providing supervised practice in application of psychological skills and knowledge. A maximum of four credit hours counted toward the psychology major and minor from the following courses: PSY 2890, 4890, 4380 and 4390. Prerequisites: 18 credit hours of psychology courses, one of which must be PSY SS1010. Other courses will be at the discretion of the supervising instructor. Also, permission of the instructor is required.

PSY 4510. Industrial and Organizational Behavior (3)
The psychological aspects of the work setting including selection, training, motivation, attitudes, and the effects of the organization. Recommended prerequisite: PSY SS1010.

PSY 4760. Tests and Measurements (3)
Survey of methods, techniques, and instruments for measuring individual differences in behavior, a critical analysis of representative tests, values and limitations of test, methods of test selection, lab experience with tests. Prerequisites: PSY SS1010, PSY SI3600 and PSY 3010.

PSY 4800. Projects and Research (2-3)
Supervised projects and primary research in various areas of psychology. Limited to advanced students upon consent of psychology supervisor and department chair. A paper written in APA style and an oral report are required at the end of the semester. Prerequisite: Twenty hours of approved Psychology courses including Psychology 1010, 3600 (Statistics) and 3610 (Research Methods) or equivalent. Prerequisite: PSY SS1010.

PSY 4830. Directed Readings (1-2)
Independent readings or secondary research on advanced special topics under the direction of a faculty member. For each hour of credit in a readings project the student is required to read 400 pages of journal articles or 1200 pages of book material. Repeatable for a maximum of 4 credit hours. A paper written in APA style and oral report are required at the end of the term. Prerequisite: PSY SS1010.

PSY 4890. Cooperative Work Experience (1-2)
Open to all students. Provides academic credit for on-the-job learning experience. Learning experiences will be specified in a learning contract. Grade and amount of credit will be determined by the department. Limited to two credit hours per semester and four credit hours counted toward the psychology major and minor from the following courses: PSY 2890, 4890, 4380 and 4390. Federal regulations restrict all Cooperative Work Experience to no more than six semester hours. Must be employed in a position that uses psychological training. By prior permission of instructor only. Prerequisite: PSY SS1010. May be repeated for up to 4 semester hours.

PSY 4900. Selected Topics in Psychology (2-3)
An in-depth exploration of selected topics and issues in the discipline. Repeatable for a maximum of 6 hours. In some cases this course may substitute for one of the area requirements in areas 2-5 when the course has received prior approval of the department for that area. If a student wishes this substitution, they should ask if this approval has been made prior to taking the course. Post-Facto substitutions are not allowed.

PSY 4910. Capstone Research Project (3)
A research project to be written by a senior student under the supervision of a faculty member. Successful completion of the research project will fulfill the capstone requirement of the major (as an alternative to PSY 4000 or 4090) and the senior project requirement for honors. The student must apply for acceptance into the course (applications available from the chair), and the research proposal and the final project must be approved by a faculty committee. It is expected that the course will be taken once for the writing and defense of a proposal and repeated for the writing and defense of the final project.

PSY 4920. Workshops, Institutes and Special Programs (1-3)
Consult the semester class schedule for the current offering under this number. The specific title and credit authorized will appear on the student transcript.

PSY 4990. Seminar (1)
Readings and active discussions of selected psychological topics. Repeatable for up to a total of 2 hours.

SOCIAL WORK

The goal of social work education at every level is for students to integrate the knowledge, skills, and values of the profession into a generalist practice framework. Social work education takes place in four year undergraduate and two-year graduate programs and leads to professional degrees at the baccalaureate and master’s levels, respectively. These levels of education differ from each other in the level of knowledge and skill they expect students to synthesize in practice competence. These distinctions and the discretion provided by the tradition of academic freedom contribute to the desired uniqueness of each program. The Social Work program at Weber State University is accredited at the baccalaureate level by the Council on Social Work Education.

Social Work is a self-regulating profession with sanction from public, private and voluntary auspices. Through all its roles and functions and multiple settings, social work is based on knowledge and guided by professional values and ethics. With its central focus on the transactions between people and their environments, social work uses research and theory from social, behavioral, and biological sciences as well as from social work practice itself, developing a unique perspective on the human condition.

Sound curriculum designs give the educational program the integrated focus inherent in the profession's enduring philosophical base. This ensures historical continuity and provides a stable framework from which to assess and incorporate practice innovations, emerging knowledge, and interdisciplinary exchanges. This combination of curricular stability and flexibility is essential if the program is to respond effectively to changing social forces and provide leadership in the profession's ongoing quest for progressive social change.

It is, therefore, essential that all professional social workers have in common knowledge, skills, and values that are generally transferable from one setting, population group, geographic area, or problem to another.

The Social Work program is designed to: (1) prepare students for generalist entry-level social work practice; (2) prepare students for graduate social work education; (3) prepare students to take the Social Service Worker licensing examination; (4) provide a liberal, interdisciplinary learning experience to help students in their understanding of and adjustment to living in a democratic society; and (5) provide continuing educational opportunities for the baccalaureate and paraprofessional social work practitioners.

SOCIAL WORK MAJOR

BACHELOR DEGREE (B.S. OR B.A.)

- Program Prerequisite: Must be accepted to the program (see Admissions Requirements described later in this section).

- Minor: The Social Work Major requires either: (a) the completion of a minor; or (b) a minor alternative. Minor requirements are found in the University catalog under the specific programs that offer them. As an alternative to a minor, a Social Work Major may choose to complete 18 credits (generally the equivalent of six courses) from a set of approved elective enrichment courses listed on the next page.

- Grade Requirements: A grade of “C” or better is required in all courses toward and included in this major (a grade of “C-” is not acceptable). In addition, an overall GPA for these courses of 2.50 must be maintained. Also refer to the general grade requirements on page 36. Students not meeting the minimum grade requirements for an individual Social Work course may repeat that course one (1) time before being dropped from the Social Work program. In the rare event a student is unable to complete SW 4860 and 4861 in the field agency they are originally placed, at the discretion of the field placement advisor, the student may request a new placement one (1) time only. Students at any time failing to meet the overall GPA of 2.50 will be given a probationary semester to raise their GPA to the minimum standard. Failure to comply with this policy will result in being dropped from the Social Work program.

- Credit Hour Requirements: A total of 120 credit hours is required for graduation – a minimum of 38 of these is required within the major not counting the prerequisite courses totaling 18 semester hours. A total of 40 upper division credit hours is required for graduation from Weber State University (courses numbered 3000 and above) – a minimum of 35 of these upper division credit hours is required within the Social Work major, plus 3 additional credits in SJS600 - Social Statistics (which has Quantitative Literacy as a prerequisite), or equivalent.

Advisement

Students accepted into the program are assigned to a faculty advisor for academic and professional advising. The faculty advisor assists students with course scheduling, academic counseling, and professional self-assessment. Students are required to see their faculty advisor at least one time per semester prior to registration.

Call the Social Work office number, 801-626-6157, or the Department Chair, at 801-626-6156, for more information or to schedule an appointment.

Admission Requirements

Declare a program of study (see page 18). Satisfactory completion of the following is required prior to formal acceptance into the program:

1. WSU Writing Competency (Composition)*
2. WSU Quantitative Literacy*
3. WSU Computer Literacy*

* Refer to General Requirements on pages 36-41

4. 60-63 semester graduation hours (or equivalent) including the prerequisite courses listed below for the Behavioral and Social Sciences, Human Development, and Social Work prerequisites. These courses must be completed with a grade of “C” or better and with a total GPA of 2.5 or better.

5. Students agree to abide by the National Association of Social Workers Code of Ethics.

Courses Required Prior to Formal Acceptance to the Social Work Program

Behavioral and Social Science Prerequisites (9 credit hours)

- ANTH SS/DV1000 Introduction to Anthropology (3)
- PSY SS1010 Introductory Psychology (3)
- SOC SS/DV1010 Introduction to Sociology (3)

Human Development Prerequisite (3 credit hours)

- ZOOL LS1020 Human Biology (3)

Any transfer course in this area must contain only human biology content, courses with animal or plant content are not acceptable.

Social Work Prerequisites (6 credit hours)

- SW SS1010 Intro to Generalist Social Work (3)
- SW 2100 Human Behavior & Social Environment I (3)

ZOOL LS1020 should be taken prior to or concurrently with SW 2100

Formal Admission to the Social Work Program

Formal applications for admission to the program will be considered during the semester the student is in the process of completing all the prerequisites or anytime thereafter. Applications may be obtained at the Social Work office (Social and Behavioral Sciences Building, Room 140). The Admissions and Retention Committee will consider all applications and make recommendations in one of the following areas:

1. Full admission to the program
2. Admission to the program with contingencies
3. Denial of admission to the program

General Education

Refer to pages 36-41 for either Bachelor of Science or Bachelor of Arts requirements. The following courses for the Social Work prerequisite requirements will also fulfill general education requirements: SW SS1010, Introduction to Social Work; ANTH SS/
DV1000, Introduction to Anthropology; PSY SS1010, Introductory Psychology; SOC SS1010, Principles of Sociology; and ZOOL LS1020, Human Biology.

Suggested Course Sequence

Please refer to this program in the online catalog (weber.edu/catalog) and/or contact the department for a suggested course sequence.

Courses Approved as an Alternative to a Traditional Minor

As an alternative to a minor, a Social Work Major may choose to complete 18 credits (generally the equivalent of six courses) from the following list of elective enrichment courses. Other courses not on this list may be approved to meet this requirement at the discretion of a student’s faculty advisor with the consent of the Social Work faculty. At least six of these credits must be taken in Social Work. No more than six credits may be taken within a single discipline. Students are strongly encouraged to consult with their faculty advisor in selecting one of these options. Courses used to meet the minor alternative MUST be pre-approved by a faculty advisor.

Grade Requirements: Minimum grade of "C" is required in all courses toward and included in the Social Work emphasis (a grade of "C-" is not acceptable). In addition, an overall GPA for these courses of 2.50 must be maintained.

Credit Hour Requirements: Minimum of 19 credit hours.

Program Prerequisites: Enroll in General Honors Program and complete 10 hours of General Honors Courses (see the Honors Program on page 43).

Grade Requirements: Maintain an overall GPA of 3.3.

Credit Hour Requirements: Fulfill the requirements for the Social Work major, of which the following courses must be completed on an Honors basis: SW 2100 (3); 3100 (2); 3200 (2); 3900 (3); and select two courses from SW 3500 (3); 3910 (3); 3920 (2); or 3930 (3); for a total of 5* classes. For the remainder of the Social Work Honors major see the chair of the Social Work department.

*Permission from the program director must be sought before registering in courses for Honors credit. A written agreement will be reached with the appropriate professor regarding the work expected for Honors credit (see the Honors Program on page 43).

SOCIAL WORK COURSES - SW

SW SS1010. Introduction to Generalist Social Work (3)
A generalist introduction to the relationships between social systems (individuals, groups, and communities) and the social welfare networks which impact them, including the role of the social work profession. Open to all Weber State University students.

SW 2100. Human Behavior and the Social Environment I (3)
This is the first course in the Human Behavior and the Social Environment sequence. It identifies the relationships between human developmental stages (from conception to death) and the problems associated with environmental interactions. Systems and theory are examined in the biological, psychological, and sociological arenas. Prerequisite: SW SS1010. (It is suggested that LS1020 be taken before or concurrently with SW 2100.)

SW DV2200. Issues in Diversity (3)
A study of diversity among individuals, groups, communities, and of issues social workers will need to understand when interfacing with diverse populations.

SW 2920. Short Courses, Workshops, Institutes and Special Programs (1-4)
Consult the semester class schedule for the current offering under this number. The specific title and credit authorized for these elective courses will appear on the student transcript.

SW 3100. Human Behavior and the Social Environment II (2)
This second course in the Human Behavior and the Social Environment sequence is designed to present basic principles and fundamental concepts necessary for acquiring and organizing knowledge for practice with individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities and on the interaction among these systems. Alternative paradigms on human behavior and the social environment are also explored. Prerequisites: SW 1010, 2100 and formal admittance to the Social Work Program.

SW 3200. Child and Family Welfare (2)
A historical and contemporary examination of child and family welfare issues, and social work intervention strategies. Prerequisite: SW SS1010.

SW 3500. Social Welfare & Gerontological Policy Development and Service (3)
The history, mission, philosophy and human service aspects used in the development of social work/gerontology as a profession will be covered. Examples of social, public and social welfare policy will be identified and studied. Knowledge of local, state, and federal legislation, professional organizations, and membership organizations will assist in review of lobby, funding and implementation practices used in meeting human service needs. Methods for the political and organizational analysis of processes and policy will be covered.
Prerequisite: SW SS1010 or GERT SS1010. (SW/GERT 3500 must be completed before entering Field Practice).

SW SI3700. Social Work Research (3)
Social work research and its relationship to social work theory and practice. The class will include content on qualitative, quantitative and single system research methodologies; analysis of data, including statistical procedures; systematic evaluation of practice; analysis and evaluation of theoretical bases, research questions, methodologies, statistical procedures, and conclusions of research reports; and relevant technological advances. The course will also identify how the research curriculum contributes to the student's use of scientific knowledge for practice. Prerequisite: SW SS1010. (Must be completed before entering SW 4861.) Recommended prerequisite: completion of social statistics class.

SW 3900. Social Work Methods, Values, and Ethics (3)
An ecological system and generalist approach to social work practice methods. Content is germane to various systems and subsystems typically implicated in problems encountered by social workers. A study of values and ethics will assist the social worker to understand the proprieties of professional practice. Prerequisites: SW SS1010, 2100, 2200 and formal admittance to the social work program.

SW 3910. Social Work Practice I (3)
An intensive knowledge-based generalist course focusing on MICR social work intervention skills combining lecture and hands-on experiences. Prerequisite: SW 3900.

SW 3920. Social Work Practice II (3)
A generalist course directed at understanding and demonstrating the principles, concepts and techniques of planned change in mezzo settings including families and small groups. Prerequisite: SW 3910. (Must be taken concurrently with SW 3930 and 4860.)

SW 3930. Social Work Practice III (3)
A generalist course designed to illustrate the principles, concepts and techniques of planned change in macro settings including institutions, organizations, and communities. (Must be taken concurrently with SW 3920.)

SW 4150. DSM IV-TR (3)
This elective course is designed to familiarize the social work student with the Diagnostic Statistical Manual for Mental Disorders (DSM IV-TR classification). The DSM IV-TR provides the practitioner with a systematic diagnostic tool for practice and research.

SW 4250. Medical Social Work (3)
This elective course explores the process and dynamics of the provision of social work services within the medical service delivery system.

SW 4500. Interventions for Populations at Risk (3)
A course designed to study populations at risk with an emphasis on women and people of color. Interventions to alleviate conditions of human suffering are stressed. Prerequisite: SW 3910.

SW 4600. Social Work in Special Settings (2-4)
This elective course is designed to accommodate special topic areas in Social Work practice. (Maximum hours toward graduation 4.)

SW 4800. Projects and Research (1-3)
This elective course allows for supervised projects and primary research in various areas of social work. Limited to senior students. Prerequisite: Consent of department chair and instructor.

SW 4810. Experimental Courses (2-3)
This elective course is designed to accommodate new courses under an experimental format.

SW 4830. Directed Readings (1-3)
This elective course is an individual readings for seniors who are majoring in social work for a maximum of 3 credit hours. Permission must be obtained from the instructor. Students are required to complete a minimum of 1000 pages of selected readings per class hour requested for credit.

SW 4860. Social Service Field Experience I (4)
This field practice course requires a minimum of 200 hours of supervised field service in an approved social service agency. The emphasis is to include micro, mezzo, and macro practice opportunities. Prerequisites: Formal admittance to Field Experience required. (Must be taken concurrently with SW 3920 and 3930.)

SW 4861. Social Service Field Experience II (4)
This field practice course requires a minimum of 200 hours of supervised field service in an approved social service agency. The emphasis is to include micro, mezzo, and macro practice opportunities. Prerequisites: SW SI3700, SW 4860, GERT SI3600. (To be taken concurrently with SW 4990.)

SW 4890. Cooperative Work Experience (1-3)
This TBA elective course provides opportunity for students to earn academic credits for on-the-job experiences. Prerequisites: SW 3910 and consent of department chair and instructor.

SW 4920. Short Courses, Workshops, Institutes, and Special Programs (2-4)
Consult the semester class schedule for the current offering under this number. The specific title and credit authorized for these elective courses will appear on the student transcript.

SW 4990. Social Work Senior Seminar (2)
This course requires preparation and discussion of social work concepts and topics, and information and techniques in obtaining a job and selecting a graduate school. Prerequisite: SW 4860. (Must be taken concurrently with SW 4861.)

Gerontology

Gerontology is the multi-disciplinary study of the processes of aging from conception to death with special focus on the later life cycle and the problems associated with aging and the aged in society. Individuals working in the field of aging need a broad range of knowledge that transcends a single academic discipline. The Gerontology Program at Weber State University is designed to: (1) provide preparation for employment in both the private and public sector including working with senior citizen centers, nutrition programs, housing projects, long-term care facilities, state and local aging programs, Hospice, research, senior volunteer programs, job services, retirement planning and other age-related employment; (2) provide continuing education for job enrichment and preparation for persons already in the aging employment sector through consultation, workshops and academic courses to enhance career opportunities; (3) provide general education courses designed to assist students in understanding and dealing with older persons within their family and society at large; (4) encourage students to go directly into aging employment and/or to seek graduate degrees in gerontology or related fields leading to positions in national, regional and local aging network sectors.

Gerontology Major

BACHELOR DEGREE (B.S. OR B.A.)

- Program Prerequisite: Not required.
- Minor: Required.
- Grade Requirements: A grade of “C” or better in courses used toward the major (grade of “C-” is not acceptable) in addition to an overall GPA for Gerontology courses of 2.5 or higher. Also refer to the general grade requirements for graduation on page 36.

» Credit Hour Requirements: A total of 120 credit hours is required for graduation – a minimum of 31 of these is required within the major. A total of 40 upper division credit hours is required (courses numbered 3000 and above) – 19-28 of these are required within the major.

Advisement

Students are assigned to a faculty advisor for academic and professional advising. The faculty advisor assists students with course scheduling, academic counseling, and professional self-assessment. Students are required to see their faculty advisor at least once per semester. Call the Social Work/Gerontology office number, 801-626-6157, for more information or to schedule an appointment.

Gerontology majors must consult with their Gerontology advisor before registering each semester.

Admission Requirements

Declare your program of study (see page 18). Students must file “Major/Minor Declaration” form with the department office.

General Education

Refer to pages 36-41 for either Bachelor of Science or Bachelor of Arts requirements. GERT SS1010 will fill both a major/minor and general education requirement.

GERONTOLOGY COURSES - GERT

GERT SS1010. Introduction to Gerontology (3)
A study of physical, psychological, social-psychological, and social dimensions of aging and the application of principles and strategies to facilitate adaptation to aging. Emphasis is placed on methods of gathering knowledge, the current knowledge base, and strategies for adaptation in the later stages of life cycle.

GERT 2220. Introduction to Social Gerontology (3) S
A scientific study of social and psychological aging and the application of principles and strategies to facilitate adaptation to aging. The focus is on methods and systems for gathering data, demography of aging, social theoretical perspectives, psychological effects of aging, aging and the economy, and government and the politics of aging.

GERT 2900. Current Topics on Aging (2-4)
A study on age related topics of current interest. Specific title will appear on student's transcript along with authorized credit.

GERT 2920. Short Courses, Workshops, Institutes and Special Programs (1-4)
Consult the semester class schedule for the current offering under this number. The specific title and credit authorized will appear on the student transcript.

GERT 3000. Death and Dying (3) S
An in-depth study of death, death-related issues and social institutions and practices dealing with death in American society, with special emphasis on the social processes surrounding death and constructive responses to death and dying.

GERT 3120. Aging: Adaptation and Behavior (3) F
An examination of the physical and psychological processes of aging. The emphasis is upon behavioral and social adaptation to these processes.

GERT DV3320. Ethnicity and Older Women in the American Society (3) F
The importance of special populations (ethnic, racial and women) as they relate to the aging process.

GERT SI3400. Methods of Research: Social and Behavioral Research (4)
Focus on acquiring knowledge, developing skills, and conducting social and behavioral scientific research, utilizing single system design that includes visual and statistical assessment. The course will include both qualitative methodologies (evaluative research, historical methods, case studies, field research, ethnography studies, and grounded theory) and quantitative methodologies (experimental and survey with a special emphasis on survey). It is recommended to take a Statistics course before Research.

GERT 3500. Social Welfare & Gerontological Policy Development and Service (3)
The history, mission, philosophy and human service aspects used in the development of social work/gerontology as a profession will be covered. Examples of social, public and social welfare policy will be identified and studied. Knowledge of local, state, and federal legislation, professional organizations, and membership organizations will assist in review of lobby, funding and implementation practices used in meeting human service needs. Methods for the political and organizational analysis of processes and policy will be covered. Prerequisite: SW SS1010 or GERT SS1010. (SW/GERT 3500 must be completed before entering Field Practice).

GERT SI3600. Social Statistics (3)
Introduction to analysis and presentation of data. Prerequisite: Meet WSU Quantitative Literacy requirement.

GERT 4220. Societal Responses to Aging (3) F
This course is designed to cover aspects of retirement relating to job change or discontinuation. The processes, events, social roles, and phases of life will be presented.

GERT 4650. Retirement: Adjustment/Planning (3) S
This course is designed to cover aspects of retirement relating to job change or discontinuation. The processes, events, social roles, and phases of life will be presented.

GERT 4830. Readings and/or Projects (2-4)
Individual readings and/or projects for the senior Gerontology major (with the approval of the instructor) with a maximum of four (4) credit hours possible.

GERT 4860. Introductory Field Practicum (2)
Introductory experience in the world of work in a gerontology setting whereby the student might develop, test, and use knowledge derived from classroom experiences (90 hours at approved agency). Prerequisites: GERT SS1010, 3320 and 3500; must be a declared major or minor.

GERT 4861. Advanced Field Practicum (2)
Advanced experience in the world of work in a gerontology setting whereby the student might develop, test, and use knowledge derived from classroom experiences (90 hours at approved agency). Prerequisites: GERT SI3400, 3500, 4860, and must be a declared major or minor.

GERT 4862. Specialized Field Practicum (2)
Specialized experience in the world of work in a gerontology setting whereby the student might develop, test, and use knowledge derived from classroom experiences (90 hours at approved agency). Prerequisites: GERT SI3600, 4861, and must be a declared major or minor.

GERT 4900. Current Topics on Aging (2-4) Su
An in-depth study on age related topics of current interest. Specific title will appear on student's transcript along with authorized credit.

GERT 4920. Short Courses, Workshops, Institutes and Special Programs (1-4)
Consult the semester class schedule for the current offering under this number. The specific title and credit authorized will appear on the student transcript.

GERT 4990. Senior Seminar (2)
Preparation and discussion of gerontology concepts and topics. Information and techniques for obtaining a job and selecting a graduate school. Prerequisites: GERT SS1010, 3320, 3400, 3500 and 3600.

Sociology

Sociology Coordinator: Dr. Brenda Marsteller Kowalewski
Telephone Contact: Carol Jensen 626-6241

Sociology is the study of social life, social change, and the social causes and consequences of human behavior. Sociologists investigate the structure of groups, organizations, and societies, and how people interact within these contexts. Since all human behavior is social, the subject matter of sociology includes, but is not limited to, street crime and delinquency, corporate downsizing, how people express emotions, welfare or education reform, how families differ and flourish, divisions of gender, ethnicity, and social class, religious cults, medicine, media, and other social phenomena. Because sociology addresses the most challenging issues of our time, it is a rapidly expanding field whose potential is increasingly tapped by those who craft policies and create programs. Few fields have such broad scope and relevance for research, theory, and application of knowledge. Sociology is a popular major for students planning futures in such professions as law, business, education, architecture, politics, public administration, urban planning and development, human services, and a myriad of other professions. It also provides a solid foundation for pursuing graduate degrees in related fields. Although a career as a sociologist requires a Masters or Ph.D., an undergraduate education in sociology can be applied to almost any profession a student pursues.

Sociology Major or Sociology Teaching Major

Bachelor Degree (B.S. or B.A.)

- Program Prerequisite: Not required for the Sociology major.
- Minor: Required
- Grade Requirements: A minimum grade of ’C’ in courses counted toward the major (a grade of ’C-‘ is not acceptable). Also refer to the general grade requirements for graduation on page 36. Sociology Teaching majors must achieve an overall GPA of 3.00 for admission to the Teacher Education Program.
- Credit Hour Requirements: A total of 120 credit hours is required for graduation, of which 40 must be upper division credit hours (courses numbered 3000 and above). A minimum of 36 Sociology credit hours are required for the major.

Advisement

Sociology majors are assigned to a faculty advisor and are encouraged to meet with that advisor annually for course and program advisement. Call 801-626-6241 for additional information. Teaching majors are encouraged to also consult with advisors in the Jerry and Vickie Moyes College of Education (call 801-626-6269).

Admission Requirements

Declare your program of study (see page 18). There are no special admission or application requirements for the Sociology major. Teaching majors must meet the Teacher Education admission and certification requirements (see Teacher Education Department).

SOCIOLGY COURSES - SOC

SOC SS/DV1010. Introduction to Sociology (3)

An introduction to the study of Sociology through the concepts and principles used to understand and evaluate society. It focuses on all aspects of society: culture; social interaction; institutions; group processes; deviance and social control; stratification, diversity, and inequality based on race, ethnicity, class, gender, etc.; and social stability and change.

SOC SS/DV1020. Social Problems (3)

A study of major social problems in contemporary society, including issues of age, gender, family, race, ethnicity, wealth and poverty, politics, education, public safety, health care, substance abuse, and environment. Special emphasis is given to these issues and their consequences for today’s global and diverse society.

SOC SS1030. American Social Institutions: Past, Present & Future (3)

An introduction to social institutions in the United States through the concepts and theories of Sociology. Special emphasis is given to exploring the nature of social institutions, including their functions, dynamic interaction with each other, and impact on American behavior and life. Cross cultural comparison will be included in this course.

SOC 1110. Courtship and Marriage (3)

A comparative approach is employed to study contemporary patterns of dating, courtship, cohabitation, engagement, and adjustment in marriage.

SOC 2810. Experimental Course Offerings (2-3)

SOC 2920. Short Courses, Workshops, Institutes, and Special Programs (1-3)

Consult the semester class schedule for the current offering under this number. The specific title and credit authorized will appear on the student transcript.

SOC 3000. Social Psychology (3)

Sociological Social Psychology is the study of individual, group, and social behavior through analysis of the relationship between individuals and social institutions. Individuals actively create social structure while they are simultaneously shaped by it. Students will analyze how social interaction, processes, roles, and statuses are created and maintained by individuals. Students will also analyze how these same processes, roles, and statuses shape their individual behavior. Social Psychological theories and methodologies are also addressed. Prerequisite: SOC SS/DV1010 or SS/DV1020 or SS1030.

INTERDISCIPLINARY MINORS

The Sociology Program participates in the Asian Studies, Ethnic Studies, European Studies, Legal Studies and Women’s Studies Minor Programs and the Urban and Regional Planning Emphasis Program. Students who wish to enroll in one of these programs should indicate their desire to do so with the program coordinator who will help them work out a proper combination of courses to fit their particular needs. (See the Interdisciplinary Programs section of this catalog.)
SOC DV3010. Social Stratification (3)
The study of social stratification and inequality in the United States and globally. It focuses on economic class and status groups, such as gender, race-ethnicity, age, sexual orientation, and physical ability. Prerequisite: SOC SS/DV1010 or SS/DV1020 or SS1030.

SOC 3030. Sociological Theory - Classical (3)
A study of the classical tradition of sociological thought during the European period: Comte, Marx, Weber, Simmel, Durkheim, and others. To be taken before Sociology 4030. Prerequisite: SOC SS/DV1010 or SS/DV1020 or SS1030.

SOC 3110. Sociology of Family (3)
Analyzes family arrangements and structure, changes in such arrangements over time, and contemporary issues facing families in our ever-changing world. Emphasis is placed on variations in family experiences with regard to race, gender, social class, and sexual orientation. Family, as it relates to other social institutions such as politics, religion, and the economy, is also explored.

SOC DV3120. Sex/Gender Roles: Past, Present, Future (3)
An overview of the differences and similarities in human sex roles cross-culturally and over time, with special emphasis on the influences of biology, socialization, and ecology in their origin, perpetuation, and change. (Cross listed with ANTH DV3700.)

SOC 3250. Deviance and Social Control (3)
Introduces the student to the various sociological concepts of deviance and social control. Deviance and social control are examined in their positive and negative forms. The benefits and contributions as well as the consequences and disruptions of these forms are considered in the context of the formal and informal socialization processes and the internalization of social norms. Prerequisite: SOC SS/DV1010 or SS/DV1020 or SS1030.

SOC 3260. Juvenile Delinquency (3)
Juvenile delinquency as a social phenomenon and its causes involving definitions, agencies of law enforcement, and the courts. Prerequisite: SOC SS/DV1010 or SS/DV1020 or SS1030.

SOC 3270. Criminology (3)
Study of the nature, extent, causes, and treatment of crime. Prerequisite: SOC SS/DV1010 or SS/DV1020 or SS1030.

SOC 3300. Environment and Society (3)
An in-depth study of societal-environmental interactions including population, technology and organization impacts of human societies on the physical environment, and environmental impacts on human behavior and social organization.

SOC 3400. Social Change and Social Movements (3)
The factors which change society and how society changes, emphasizing technological innovations and its implications, social movements, and the role of individuals. Prerequisite: SOC SS/DV1010 or SS/DV1020 or SS1030.

SOC 3410. Sociology of Religion (3)
Examination of religion and religious activities globally from the theoretical perspectives of Sociology.

SOC 3420. Sociology of Education (3)
Analysis of the structure and function of education as a central social institution in contemporary society.

SOC 3430. Medicine and Healthcare in Society (3)
Utilizes the Sociological perspective to explore the Institution of Medicine and the Medical Healthcare Delivery System; its function as a social institution and its capability, accessibility, and the related issues of providing Healthcare. The various organizational system structures, and their economic and political dimensions are also examined. Further emphasis is placed on the various professional roles, supporting roles, and patient behaviors. Additional focus is placed upon selected international comparisons, as well as medical research, ethical considerations, and international health issues.

SOC 3540. Small Groups & Leadership (3)
The formation, structure, and functioning of small groups in terms of group processes and group products. This course will also examine authority, leadership principles and skills, decision making processes, and motivation.

SOC 3550. Organizations in Society (3)
Surveys the nature and structure of organizations in general and modern formal organizations and globalization in specific. How organizations work, function and affect contemporary society and individuals' lives and behavior. Sociological theories about modern organizations and globalization will be examined. Prerequisite: SOC SS/DV 1010.

SOC SI3600. Social Statistics (3)
Introduction to descriptive and inferential statistical analysis techniques and the presentation of results. Prerequisites: Social Science General Education course; meet WSU Quantitative Literacy Requirement.

SOC SI3660. Sociological Research (3)
Examines the scientific foundations of Sociology and methods of Sociological Research. Prerequisite: SOC SS/DV1010 or SS/DV1020 or SS1030.

SOC 3840. Cities and Urban Life (3)
In-depth analysis of the urbanization, modernization, and development of the system of cities. The relationship between cities and culture, mental illness, and social problems are examined.

SOC DV3850. American Minorities in Urban Settings (3)
Examines the social conditions of ethnic and racial minorities in the United States, based primarily on current statistical and ethnographic data. Includes a survey of theories of the causes and dynamics of ethnic and race relations.

SOC 4030. Sociological Theory - Contemporary (3)
The works of major contemporary theorists (Mead, Parsons, Merton, Goffman, Garfinkel, etc.) and the emergence of new currents of sociological thought. Prerequisites: SOC SS/DV1010 and SOC 3030.

SOC 4120. Socialization over the Life Course (3)
Study of how social environment, institutions, groups, and interactive networks influence and shape human behavior through the life course.

SOC 4270. Sociology of Law (3)
A study of the interchange between law and society, where society creates the law, yet law regulates society. Prerequisite: SOC SS/DV1010 or SS/DV1020 or SS1030.

SOC DV4410. Comparative Political Sociology (3)
In-depth examination of relations of power, authority and political participation within various social groups, communities, formal organizations, nation-states, and the global economy. How power relations influence and are influenced by kinship, class, gender, and socio-economic interest groups.

SOC DV4550. Sociology of Work (3)
Explores the relationship between work and social class, gender, technology, race, and ethnicity. Additionally, the nature of occupational subcultures is analyzed.
ANTHROPOLOGY

BACHELOR DEGREE (B.S. OR B.A.)

- Program Prerequisite: Not required.
- Minor: Required
- Grade Requirements: Minimum grade of "C" in courses counted toward fulfilling the major (a grade of "C-" is not acceptable) and an overall GPA of 2.00.
- Credit Hour Requirements: A total of 120 credit hours is required for graduation, of which 40 must be upper division credit hours (courses numbered 3000 and above). A minimum of 36 Anthropology credit hours is required within the major.

Advisement

A systematic advisement system assigns all declared Major students to a faculty advisor. Students are officially notified that they must be formally advised at least once a year with all contacts posted in their files which are maintained in the department. Undeclared Majors/Minors/BIS students and those with general questions should contact the Coordinator of Anthropology (Dr. Rosemary Conover, phone: 801-626-6641).

Admission Requirements

Declare your program of study (see page 18). There are no special admission or application requirements for the major or minor. New freshmen and transfer students admitted to WSU in good standing qualify for admission to this major.

Core and General Education

Refer to pages 36-41 for either Bachelor of Science or Bachelor of Arts requirements. The following courses may be used to fulfill both general education and program requirements: ANTH SS/DV1000, LS/DV1020, HU/DV1040, SS/DV2010, and SS2030. (See university policy on any limitations.)

ARCHAEOLOGICAL TECHNICIAN

INSTITUTIONAL CERTIFICATE

ASSOCIATE OF APPLIED SCIENCE (A.A.S.)

Director: Brooke Arkush
Telephone Contact: Carol Jensen 801-626-6241

Archaeology can be an emphasis within the anthropology major or minor, part of a Bachelor of Integrated Studies degree, or stand alone as an independent program. The program trains students for work as archaeological technicians, adding a vocational component to an academic discipline. Archaeology, with its modern emphasis on scientific problem solving, an evolutionary perspective, and ecological theory, is also a valuable part of a student's science education.

» Grade Requirements: A minimum grade of "C" in courses counted toward fulfilling the major (a grade of "C-" is not acceptable) and an overall GPA of 2.00.

» Credit Hour Requirements: Minimum of 26 credit hours for the Institutional Certificate, which must include ENGL EN1010 (3) or equivalent. Minimum of 63 credit hours for the Associate of Applied Science degree, which must include ENGL EN1010 (3) (or equivalent), COMM HU1020 (3), and MATH 1050 (3) and 9 additional credit hours of general education, including one course in each of the Humanities, Sciences, and Social Sciences areas.

General Education
Refer to pages 36-41 for Associate of Applied Science degree requirements.

Advisement
All declared Archaeological Technician students are assigned to the Director of the Archaeological Technician program for advisement. Students are officially notified that they must be formally advised by the Director at least once a year with all contacts posted in their files to be maintained in the department. Contact with the Director is by appointment; undeclared students with questions should also contact the Director of the Archaeological Technician Program (Dr. Brooke Arkush, phone: 801-626-7202) or the Chair of the Department of Sociology and Anthropology (Dr. Rosemary Conover, phone: 801-626-6641).

ANTHROPOLOGY COURSES - ANTH

ANTH SS/DV1000. Introduction to Anthropology (3)

Anthropology is the study of humankind, past and present: our origins and the development of cultural behavior and biological attributes. This course examines what it means to be human, describing and explaining human differences and similarities throughout time and across the world.

ANTH LS/DV1020. Biological Anthropology (3)

Explores the human fossil record, human evolution, population genetics, primatology, and modern human biological diversity from a biocultural perspective.

ANTH HU/DV1040. Language and Culture (3)

Explores the nature of human language and its role in sociocultural settings. Surveys a world sample of languages from the perspective of anthropological linguistics including language structure, social functions, geographical and historical variation, and cultural values.

ANTH SS/DV2010. Peoples and Cultures of the World (3)

A survey of cultures around the world, exploring their similarities and differences as observed by anthropologists.

ANTH SS2030. Principles of Archaeology (3)

Archaeology attempts to reconstruct prehistoric and early historic human life ways as well as long term cultural and biological evolutionary processes through the scientific study of material remains. This course focuses upon the history of archaeology, the ways in which archaeologists recover and analyze data, and the major theoretical perspectives used to interpret the past.

ROTC Units

Weber State has an on-campus based unit of Military Science Army ROTC and provides programs in Aerospace Studies (Air Force) and Naval Science (Navy and Marines Corps) through an inter-campus agreement with the University of Utah. Students may minor in Aerospace Studies, Military Science, or Naval Science by satisfying requirements identified in each program.

Aerospace Studies (Air Force ROTC)

Chair: Colonel Timothy C. Martin (SLC)
Location: Foreign Language/Geography Bld 1
Telephone Contact: 801-626-7649 or 801-581-6236
Professor: Colonel Timothy Martin; Assistant Professors: Major Janice Gourley and Captain Dawn Wagner

The Department of Aerospace Studies offers two- and four-year programs through the Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps (AFROTC). These provide matriculated students an opportunity to earn commissions as officers in the U.S. Air Force in conjunction with completing bachelor's or higher degree requirements in academic fields of the students’ choice. AFROTC provides education that develops abilities and attitudes vital to the career of a professional Air Force officer and gives an understanding of the mission and the global responsibilities of the U.S. Air Force.

The Department of Aerospace Studies offers academic preparation in interdisciplinary areas including communication skills, Air Force history, leadership and management principles and practices, decision-making theory and policy formulation, ethics and values, socialization process within the armed services, national and international relations, national defense structure, national security policy, and military law.

Entry into the General Military Course (GMC) during the first two years of AFROTC is open to all students. Entry into the Professional Officer Course (POC) during the final two years is selective and is normally initiated during the student's sophomore year. Potential candidate should contact the faculty for the most current information.

Undergraduate Program

General Requirements. Enrollment is open to men and women who:

1. Are U.S. citizens or applicants for naturalization. (Non-U.S. citizens may participate in the General Military Course for academic credit only.)
2. Are at least 14 years of age.
3. Are enrolled as full-time students in a program leading to an academic degree (bachelor's degree or higher).

Additional qualifications for admittance to the Professional Officer Course include:

4. Complete 1 through 3, above, plus the following:
   • The General Military Course (four-year program) and a four-week field training course, or a six-week field training course (two-year program).
5. Complete all commissioning requirements prior to the following:
   • Age 29 if a pilot or navigator candidate, or
   • Age 35 for all other categories. Waivers to extend the maximum age may be granted on a case-by-case basis.
6. Meet the physical standards for general military service.
7. Attain the current minimum scores on the Air Force Officer Qualifying Test.
8. Have a recommendation from a board of Air Force officers.
9. Are at least 17 years old and enlist in the Air Force Reserve prior to entering the POC.

Commissioning Requirements. The requirements for commissioning include successful completion of the Professional Officer Course and field training, completion of a bachelor's or higher degree, and acceptance of a commission in the U.S. Air Force.

Service Obligation. There is no military service commitment for students in the General Military Course unless the student has an AFROTC scholarship. Those entering the Professional Officer Course incur an active-duty service commitment of not less than four (4) years after receiving a commission. POC graduates who are pilot candidates agree to serve six (6) years of active duty after graduation from navigator training. POC graduates who are pilot candidates accept ten (10) years of active duty service after graduation from pilot training.

Financial Aid. All AFROTC contracted cadets receive a monthly tax free allowance depending on their student status (Freshman, Sophomore, Junior, or Senior).

Uniforms and Texts. All Air Force texts and uniforms are furnished at no expense to the student.

Scholarships. AFROTC scholarships are available to qualified applicants in both four- and two-year programs. Each scholarship provides full tuition, laboratory and incidental fees, and limited reimbursement for curriculum-required textbooks. In addition, scholarship cadets receive a nontaxable cash allowance each month during the academic year while on scholarship status. Scholarships are available on a competitive basis for two, two and one-half, three, or three and one-half years. Applications for scholarships should be made directly to the Professor of Aerospace Studies, 1901 E. South Campus Drive, Room 2009.

*to $9,000

AFROTC Programs

Two basic routes to an Air Force Commission are available to college students in the AFROTC. Entering students may enroll in the AFROTC four-year program, and those with at least two academic years remaining may apply for the two-year program. Students having an intermediate amount of school remaining (e.g., three years) may enroll in an adjusted four-year program.

Four-Year Program. Matriculated students may pursue the four-year program. Enrollment procedures for the first two years of AFROTC, known as the General Military Course, are the same as for any other college course. The GMC consists of one hour of course work and two hours of leadership laboratory each week.

During the sophomore year, cadets may apply for the last two years of the program, the Professional Officer Course. Requirements for entry into the POC are listed earlier under General Requirements. If selected for the POC, GMC cadets are scheduled to attend a four-week field training course at an Air Force base during the summer months.

Students enrolled in AFROTC may major in any field.

Two-Year Program. For entry into the two-year program, two academic years must remain at the undergraduate or graduate level, or a combination of the two. Two-year program applicants must qualify by meeting the same criteria as students in the General Military Course who are applying for POC entry. (See General Requirements.)

Each applicant must successfully complete a six-week field training course at an Air Force base during the summer months. This course provides academic and military preparation for entry into the POC. Those fulfilling all requirements, including the successful completion of field training, complete enrollment procedures upon return to campus. Application for the two-year program should be
Aerospace Studies (Air Force ROTC) MINOR

- Grade Requirements: The cumulative grade-point average (GPA) for all courses used toward the minor must be 2.0 or greater, with no course grade lower than a C-.

- Credit Hour Requirements: A minimum of 16 hours credit hours in departmental classes, 12 of which must be upper division.

Advisement

All Aerospace Studies students are required to meet with a faculty advisor at least semi-annually for course and program advisement. Call (801) 581-6236 for more information or to schedule an appointment.

Admission Requirements

Enrollment in any of the upper division, directed studies, or leadership lab classes requires approval of the department. Contact (801) 581-6236 for more information.

Course Requirements for Minor

Basic Courses: (C- or better)

- AERO 1010: Intro to Air Force Today I (1)
- AERO 1101: Intro to Air Force Today II (1)
- AERO 2010: The Air Force Way I (1)
- AERO 2011: The Air Force Way II (1)

Upper division courses: (C- or better)

- AERO 3010: Management and Leadership I (3)
- AERO 3011: Management and Leadership II (3)
- AERO 4010: National Security Forces in Contemporary American Society I (3)
- AERO 4011: National Security Forces in Contemporary American Society II (3)

Note: Completion of 6-week Field Training (AERO 3000) or two or more years active duty as an enlisted member in the United States Air Force may result in exemption from the basic courses.

Aerospace Studies Courses - AERO

General Military Courses

- AERO 1010. Introduction to the Air Force Today I (1)

- AERO 1011. Introduction to the Air Force Today II (1)
  Development and organization of United States Air Force Defensive Forces, General Purpose Forces and Tactical Air Forces.

- AERO 2010. The Air Force Way I (1)
  Development of various concepts of air power employment, emphasizing factors that have prompted research and technological change.

- AERO 2011. The Air Force Way II (1)
  Development of various concepts of air power employment, emphasizing factors that have prompted research and technological change.

- AERO 2830. Directed Readings (1-3)
  Individual study with a professor from Aerospace Studies (Air Force ROTC). Allows increased responsibility for GMC in an academic setting providing leadership/management skill development opportunities. May be repeated for credit.

GMC Leadership Laboratory

Students have the option of taking these labs for one (1) credit each or zero (0) credits.

- AERO 1010L. General Military Leadership Lab I (0)
  Application of Air Force standards, customs and courtesies. Introduction to drill and ceremonies. Studies typical organizations and missions of Air Force Bases through field trips.

- AERO 2011L. General Military Leadership Lab II (0)
  Application of Air Force standards, customs and courtesies. Introduction to drill and ceremonies. Studies typical organizations and missions of Air Force Bases through field trips.

- AERO 3010L. General Military Leadership Lab III (0)
  Application of Air Force standards, customs and courtesies. Drill and ceremonies leadership, introduction to reviews and honors. First-hand exposure to various career opportunities within the Air Force and their application on a typical Air Force base.

- AERO 4011L. General Military Leadership Lab IV (0)
  Application of Air Force standards, customs and courtesies. Drill and ceremonies leadership, introduction to reviews and honors. First-hand exposure to various career opportunities within the Air Force and their application on a typical Air Force base.

Professional Officer Courses

- AERO 3000. Field Training (1-4)
  Four to five weeks of field training conducted at United States Air Force bases as arranged by the Professor of Aerospace Studies. Course prepares AFROTC students for entry into upper division AFROTC classes, the Professional Officer Corps, and for later commissioning into the US Air Force. The course offers a minimum of 269 hours of education and training in the areas of Officership, Air Force Orientation, Leadership, and Physical/Survival Training. The course is normally conducted in the summer between the sophomore and junior years.

- AERO 3010. Management and Leadership I (3)
  Writing, speaking, and listening as communication skills; management concepts; responsibilities and ethics for an Air Force junior officer.
AERO 3011. Management and Leadership II (3)
Principles of leadership, problem solving, decision, discipline, and human relations. Emphasis on career planning as an Air Force junior officer.

AERO 4010. National Security Forces in Contemporary American Society I (3)
Examines the need for national security, analyzes the evolution and formulation of American defensive policy, strategy and joint doctrine. Investigates methods of managing conflict and touches on arms control and terrorism.

AERO 4011. National Security Forces in Contemporary American Society II (3)
Examines conflict management, arms control, military law and Air Force issues and policies.

AERO 4830. Directed Readings (1-5)
Individual study with a professor from Aerospace Studies. Provides added leadership/management skill development opportunities to develop more competitive officer candidates. May be repeated for credit.

POC Leadership Laboratory
Students have the option of taking these labs for one (1) credit each or zero (0) credits.

AERO 3110. Professional Officer
Course Leadership Lab I (1)
Application of leadership and management skills in leadership positions in a student-run organization. Study of general structure and progression patterns common to selected Air Force officer career fields. Application of personnel performance evaluation techniques.

AERO 3111. Professional Officer
Course Leadership Lab II (1)
Application of leadership and management skills in leadership positions in a student-run organization. Study of general structure and progression patterns common to selected Air Force officer career fields. Application of personnel performance evaluation techniques.

AERO 3010L. Professional Officer
Course Leadership Lab I (0)
Application of leadership and management skills in leadership positions in a student-run organization. Study of general structure and progression patterns common to selected Air Force officer career fields. Application of personnel performance evaluation techniques.

AERO 3011L. Professional Officer
Course Leadership Lab II (0)
Application of leadership and management skills in leadership positions in a student-run organization. Study of general structure and progression patterns common to selected Air Force officer career fields. Application of personnel performance evaluation techniques.

AERO 4110. Professional Officer
Course Leadership Lab III (1)
Application of leadership and management techniques with individuals and groups. Introduction to operations and communications security. Introduction to advanced educational opportunities available to Air Force officers.

AERO 4111. Professional Officer
Course Leadership Lab III (1)
Application of leadership and management techniques with individuals and groups. Introduction to operations and communications security. Introduction to advanced educational opportunities available to Air Force officers.

MILITARY SCIENCE (Army ROTC)
Chair: Lieutenant Colonel James E. Adams
Location: Annex 11/Mail Code 3103
Telephone Contact: 801-626-6518; FAX 801-626-7651
Professor: Lieutenant Colonel James E. Adams; Assistant Professor: Major Howard Carpenter, Major D. Bruce Evans, Lieutenant Colonel Gregory L. Stuart; Instructor: Master Sergeant Christopher Bryan

Military Science (Army ROTC) focuses on leadership development. Students pursue the major of their choice while studying Military Science, and graduate with the ability to function effectively as leaders. Upon completion of Army ROTC and graduation from college students become commissioned officers in the active Army, Army Reserve or National Guard.

Instructors, uniforms and equipment are provided at no cost to the student or the University. All contracted students receive $300-$500 per month (up to $3,000-$5,000 per academic year). Army ROTC also covers the cost of tuition and fees for Army ROTC scholarship students and provides a book allowance of $900 per academic year.

The Margin of Difference. Army ROTC cadets learn to be leaders and receive hands-on experience in managing physical, financial, and human resources. They develop self-confidence and superior decision-making skills. Employers value these leadership qualities and recognize associated potential.

Four-Year Program.
The traditional Army ROTC program covers four years consistent with normal undergraduate progression (freshman-senior). The four-year program is divided into two parts called the basic course and the advanced course. The basic course is usually taken during the first two years of college. It covers subjects such as mountaineering, land navigation, wilderness survival, leadership development, small unit tactics, weapons marksmanship and military history. This program is designed for high performing students who wish to try Military Science without obligation, while enhancing their leadership skills and self-confidence. Upon successful completion of the basic course, students are eligible to enter the advanced course.

Advanced course requirements are normally completed during the junior and senior years. The advanced course further develops and refines leadership competencies, and qualifies the student for a commission in United States Army. Advanced course students receive a $450 (Junior year) - $500 (Senior Year) per month tax-free subsistence allowance [up to $4,500 (Junior Year) - $5,000 (Senior Year) per year].

Two-Year Program. This is a special program for junior and community college transfers or students who did not take Army ROTC during their first two years of college. To enter the two year program, a student first participates in a five-week leadership training course. This usually takes place between the sophomore and junior year. Students are paid for attending this instruction, have the opportunity to compete for two-year scholarships, and may receive academic credit.

Scholarships. Army ROTC provides numerous scholarship opportunities. About 35 percent of WSU Army ROTC students are generally on scholarship. High school seniors may qualify for the four-year Army ROTC scholarship. College students may qualify for three or two-year scholarships. These scholarships pay the cost of tuition and fees and a flat rate for textbooks and classroom supplies. The Green to Gold scholarship allows soldiers serving on active duty to leave the Army early and attend college/ROTC full-time while receiving scholarship benefits. Other scholarship opportunities include: room and book grants and the Western Undergraduate Exchange (WUE) program. Nursing students qualify for additional incentives. Call or visit the Department of Military Science for details.

Placement Credit For Veterans. Veterans may qualify for advanced course placement based on prior military experience. Concurrently, they can take full advantage of veteran’s benefits and receive financial aid from Army ROTC participation.

Simultaneous Membership Program (SMP). This program is available to advanced course cadets who wish to serve in the Army Reserve or National Guard while attending college and pursuing a commission through Army ROTC. SMP students are eligible to receive reserve drill pay, tuition assistance, other monetary incentives, and $450-$500 per month (up to $4,500 - $5,000 per academic year) from Army ROTC. Call or visit the Department of Military Science for details.

Leave of Absence. Students, including scholarship recipients, who wish to take a leave of absence to serve a mission for their church can do so conveniently between their freshman and sophomore years.

Commission Requirements. In order to qualify for a commission as a Second Lieutenant in the United States Army, each student must:
1. Complete all required Military Science instruction while attending college as a full-time student, and receive a baccalaureate or higher degree prior to age 30 (age waiver possible for qualified students).
2. Meet medical and physical fitness standards.
4. Successfully complete the Leadership Development and Assessment Course.
5. Be recommended by the Professor of Military Science.

Service Obligation. There is no military service obligation for basic course students, unless on scholarship. Advanced course and scholarship (contracted) students incur an obligation to serve in the active Army, Army Reserve or National Guard.

MILS 4830 Directed Readings, Projects and Research (1-3)

MILITARY SCIENCE COURSES - MILS

MILS 0000. Leadership Laboratory (0) F, S
Conducted two hours per week; enhances self-confidence, team and work leadership. Allows perspective officers to practice essential leader skills and receive feedback on their performance. Open only to, and required of, students in MILS 1010, 1020, 2010, 2020, 3010, 3020, 4010, and 4020. A $50 lab fee is required.

MILS 1010. Leadership and Personal Development (2) F, S
Establishes a foundation for self and team development through participation in adventure training and team-building activities. Among the subjects presented are: land navigation, rappelling, physical fitness, first aid, leader behavior and unit effectiveness and effective time management. A two-hour weekly leadership lab is required (MILS 0000) as well as a one weekend field training exercise. Optional participation in weekly physical fitness training is recommended.

MILS 1020. Introduction to Tactical Leadership (2) F, S
This course continues to emphasize self and team development through participation in classroom and leadership lab activities that are progressively more challenging. Subject matter includes winter survival, marksmanship, small unit operations, branches of the Army, and Classroom discussion includes small unit tactics, troop leading procedures, communications skills, and the organization of company-sized Army units. A two-hour weekly leadership lab is required (MILS 0000) as well as a one weekend field training exercise. Optional participation in weekly physical fitness training recommended.

MILS 2010. Innovative Team Leadership (2) F, S
Builds on previous leadership instruction enhancing student skills in land navigation, small unit tactics, written and oral communication, event planning, group coordination and effectiveness and first aid. During this course students develop basic skills for leading others in a tactical environment. A two-hour weekly leadership lab is required (MILS 0000) as well as a one weekend field training exercise. Optional participation in weekly physical fitness training is recommended.

MILS 2020. Foundations of Tactical Leadership (2) F, S
This course focuses on leader effectiveness. Course content includes analysis of selected historical leaders and battles using the principles of war and other tenets. Student led discussions follow to highlight lessons learned relative to leadership and organizational success. Oral communications skills are central to this course. A two-hour weekly leadership lab is required (MILS 0000) as well as a one weekend field training exercise. Optional participation in weekly physical fitness training is recommended.

MILS 2400. Physical Readiness (1) F, S
A physical conditioning course that employs U.S. Army principles of fitness. Subjects include: body composition, nutrition, cardiorespiratory fitness, muscle endurance and strength, circuit training and drills.

MILS 2830. Directed Readings, Projects and Research (1-3) Su, F, S
Independent reading/research on topic(s) of military interest under the supervision of a Military Science faculty member. Requires instructor permission.
MILS 2921. ROTC Leader's Training Course (3) Su, F, S
A five-week leadership camp conducted at Fort Knox, Kentucky. Designed to introduce students to basic military skills and leadership requirements. Training includes rappelling, marksmanship, small unit tactics, physical fitness and leadership. Requires instructor permission. Credit/no credit grade only.

MILS 2922. Northern Warfare (2) Su, F, S
A two week course conducted in Alaska. Provides training in cold weather survival and small unit tactics. Prerequisites include completion of the basic course and instructor permission. Credit/no credit grade only.

MILS 2923. Air Assault (2) Su, F, S
A two week course conducted at an Army installation in the continental U.S. Provides students training in helicopter operations to include sling loading and rappelling. Prerequisites include successful completion of the basic course and instructor approval. Credit/no credit grade only.

MILS 3010. Adaptive Team Leadership (3) F
Develops leadership skills within the framework of the U.S. Army. This course focuses on theory and application of decision making, planning, organizing, management control, and communications. Also emphasizes small unit tactics and advanced land navigation skills. A two-hour weekly leadership lab is required (MILS 0000) as well as three, one-hour physical fitness sessions per week, and one weekend field training exercise.

MILS 3020. Leadership in Changing Environments (3) S
Focuses on theory and application of small unit tactics, leadership and land warfare. Subjects include preparing and issuing combat orders, organizing for combat, unit and individual movement techniques, communications and security. A two-hour weekly leadership lab is required (MILS 0000) as well as three, one-hour physical fitness sessions per week, and one weekend field training exercise.

MILS 4010. Developing Adaptive Leaders (3) F
This course focuses on the functions and roles of the commander/leader and the staff. Subject matter includes problem solving, planning techniques and procedures, written and oral communications, training management and evaluation systems. A two-hour weekly leadership lab is required (MILS 0000) as well as three, one-hour physical fitness sessions per week, and one weekend field training exercise.

MILS 4020. Leadership in a Complex World (3) S
A conference course addressing future roles and responsibilities of junior Army officers. Subject matter includes the world environment and future threats to U.S. security, the spectrum of Army requirements, Army modernization initiatives, the laws of war, joint operations and other issues designed to complete the cadet to lieutenant transition process. A two-hour weekly leadership lab is required (MILS 0000) as well as three, one-hour physical fitness sessions per week, and one weekend field training exercise.

MILS 4400. Advanced Physical Readiness (2) F, S
This course provides advanced instruction in physical fitness employing Army techniques and procedures. Students assist Military Science faculty in the planning/conduct of physical fitness training activities performed by lower division students. Requires instructor permission.

MILS 4830. Directed Readings, Projects and Research (1-3) Su, F, S
Independent reading/research on topics of military interest under the supervision of a Military Science faculty member. For each credit awarded the student will read approximately 1000 pages and prepare a written review or summary. Requires instructor permission.

MILS 4921. ROTC Leadership Development and Assessment Course (3) Su, F, S
A five week leadership camp conducted at Fort Lewis, Washington. The Advanced Camp environment stresses small unit leadership under varying and challenging conditions. Open only to students who have successfully completed basic course requirements, MILS 3010 and 3020. Requires instructor approval. Credit/no credit grade only.

MILS 4922. Airborne Operations (2) Su, F, S
A three week course conducted at Fort Benning, Georgia. Provides students training in military sky diving techniques with practical applications. Prerequisite includes completion of the basic course. Requires instructor approval. Credit/no credit grade only.

MILS 4923. Cadet Troop Leader Training (2) Su, F, S
A two week course conducted at an Army Installation in the continental U.S. or overseas. Provides first hand experience in an Army unit. Students learn about military life and the duties of a lieutenant. Prerequisites include completion of MILS 3010, 3020, and Advanced Camp. Requires instructor approval. Credit/no credit grade only.

Naval Science

Chair: Captain Louis Barraza
Location: Student Service Center Room 169
Telephone: 801-626-7521
Professors: Captain Louis Barraza, U.S. Navy; Captain Timothy Lawrence, U.S. Navy; Associate Professor: Lieutenant Colonel Robert Wendel, U.S. Marine Corps; Assistant Professors: Lieutenant Cannon Neslen, U.S. Navy; Lieutenant Sheldon Shaw

Goals:

1. To help educate midshipmen in a major field of interest to the Navy or Marine Corps leading to a baccalaureate degree.
2. To provide midshipmen with fundamental concepts and principles of naval science and with the professional naval knowledge necessary to establish a sound basis for future growth as a Naval or Marine Corps officer.
3. To prepare midshipmen for service with the highest sense of honor and integrity as commissioned officers, to cultivate the essential elements of military leadership, and to foster the growth of a strong sense of loyalty and dedication to the service and the nation.
4. To prepare midshipmen to continue their education in a field of interest to naval science later in their careers.
5. To instill the values of civilian higher education into the naval service by utilizing the expertise of civilian faculty instruction.

Cross-town Enrollment Agreement

Weber State and the University of Utah have entered a Cross-town Enrollment Agreement effective Autumn Quarter, 1982. Interested Weber State students may attend for credit at the University of Utah Naval Science courses leading to active duty commission in the United States Navy or Marine Corps upon graduation.

Four-Year Scholarship Program

A four-year, government sponsored educational program to attract young men and women to a career as commissioned officers in the United States Navy or Marine Corps. Admission is obtained through national competition. The optimum time for application is during the fall school period in the senior year of high school. The program is open, however, to Weber State students who are freshmen or sophomores so long as they are within the age limitations.
The Navy provides uniforms and textbooks, pays tuition and fees, and provides a $100.00 per month retainer pay for a period not to exceed four years. Students requiring more than four years to earn their degree are granted a leave of absence, equivalent to the excess over four years. Students in approved engineering majors may receive up to five (5) years of benefits. Upon completion of the Naval Science curriculum and the awarding of a college degree, the graduate is commissioned in the Regular Navy or Marine Corps and serves on active duty for a period of not less than four years.

Two-Year Scholarship Program

Similar to the program above, but only two years in length. The benefits (tuition, books, fees and $100 per month) are the same, as is the four-year commitment upon graduation. Freshman/sophomore curriculum in Naval Science is taught in condensed form at Newport, Rhode Island, during the summer prior to the junior year. Application for the two-year scholarship must be made by April of the sophomore year. Selection is on a national scale. Applicants must have completed at least two semesters of calculus and at least one semester of physics by the end of the sophomore year. You may apply at the Naval Science Department or at the Navy Recruiting Office.

NROTC College Program

NROTC College Program is a program which leads to a commission in the U.S. Naval Reserve or Marine Corps Reserve. Admission is obtained through application at the University Department of Naval Science. Selection is made on the basis of the predicted grade point average and an interview with two or more assistant professors in the Department of Naval Science. Final acceptance is contingent on meeting the mental, physical, and aptitude requirements.

NROTC College Program students are supplied with uniforms and Naval Science textbooks. They must pay their own tuition, fees and other educational expenses. On entering the upper division level (junior and senior years), they receive a $100.00 per month retainer pay for a period not to exceed two years. On completion of the Naval Science curriculum which is identical to that for the NROTC Scholarship Program, and receipt of a college degree, the NROTC College Program graduate is commissioned in the Naval Reserve or Marine Corps Reserve and serves on active duty for a period of not less than three years.

Two-Year NROTC College Program

Students who are going to enter their junior year or the last two years of a five-year academic program leading to a BA/BS degree may apply for the Two-Year College Program during the winter before their junior year. Applicants must successfully complete a physical examination, have at least a C average, and have completed or agreed to complete course work in mathematics and science. The Two-Year College program midshipman attend a six week Naval Science institute prior to their junior year. They receive Naval Science books and uniforms, and $100.00 a month during the junior and senior years. The program is identical with the College Program during the last two years. The Two-Year College Program midshipman serves a minimum of three-years on active duty upon graduation and commissioning.

Marine Option

A special upper division curriculum in the Department of Naval Science for NROTC students desiring a commission in the Marine Corps. The Marine Option is available to a limited number of applicants. See course listing for description of courses in Marine Option curriculum.

LDS Missions

Subject to approval by the Chief of Naval Personnel, NROTC students may be granted a two-year leave of absence to serve on a church mission.

Supplemental Workshops

One or two per year treating subjects of current interest, e.g., topics of Defense Management, International Security, Maritime Strategy, Ocean Resources/Exploration and the like.

Summer Training

NROTC Scholarship Program students are required to participate in three summer training periods termed “summer cruises.” The periods are normally of eight weeks duration and are taken during the summer following the freshman, sophomore and junior years, respectively. NROTC College Program students are required to participate in one summer training period of 6-8 weeks duration. The “cruise” occurs at the end of the junior year. Marine option students are required to complete Officer Candidate School (Bulldog) training in summer between Junior and Senior year.

NAVAL SCIENCE COURSES - NAVS

NAVS 1010. Introduction to Naval Science (2) F

A general introduction to the naval profession and to concepts of sea power. The course emphasizes mission, organization, and warfare components of the Navy and Marine Corps. Included is an overview of rank structure, training and education, career patterns, naval customs and traditions, military law, and naval terminology. The course is designed to introduce the student to the professional competencies required to become a Naval or Marine Corps Officer.

NAVS 1020. Sea Power and Maritime Affairs (3) S

A survey of United States Naval history, with emphasis on major deployments. Included is an in depth discussion of the geo-political theory of Alfred Thayer Mahan. The course also covers present day concerns in sea power and maritime affairs, including the economic and political issues of merchant marine commerce, the Law of the Sea, the navy and merchant marine of the Commonwealth of Independent States (CIS), and a comparison of the United States and CIS maritime strategies to include the rise and decline of the Soviet Navy.

NAVS 2010. Naval Ship Systems I (Weapons) (3) F

The course outlines the theory and operation of weapon systems. The student explores the processes of detection, evaluation, threat analysis, weapon selection, delivery, guidance and explosives. Fire control systems and major weapon systems are discussed, including basic capabilities and limitations. The physical aspects of radar and underwater sound are explored as well as the facets of command, control and communications as they relate to weapons systems integration.
NAVS 2020. Naval Ship Systems II (Engineering) (4)  S
This course is a detailed study of ship's characteristics and types, including basic ship design, stability and buoyancy, damage control, and the operation and integration of major shipboard components, engineering systems, and engineering fundamentals. The course includes a study of the basic concepts of the theory and design of steam, gas turbine, diesel and nuclear propulsion systems.

NAVS 2110. Evolution of Warfare (4)  F
MARINE OPTION COURSE. The course historically traces the development of warfare from the beginning of recorded history to the present, focusing on the impact of major military theorists, tacticians, and technological developments. The student acquires a basic knowledge of strategy, develops an understanding of military alternatives, and analyzes the impact of historical precedent on military thought.

NAVS 3010. Naval Operations and Navigation I (3)  F
This course is an in-depth study of piloting, basic navigation, and rules of the nautical road. Piloting skills are learned through the use of charts, visual and electronic navigation aids, and the theory and operation of magnetic and gyro compasses, and global positioning system satellites. Students are exposed to the celestial coordinate system and how this information can be applied to navigation at sea. Case studies provide discussion of real world consequences of poor navigational practices.

NAVS 3020. Naval Operations and Navigation II (3)  S
This course is a continuation of NAVS 3010. Navigation skills are enhanced by a study of maneuvering board fundamentals. Vector analysis, basic maneuvering board solutions, naval formations, visual shipboard radiotelephone procedures are studied to provide a basic foundation in shipboard operations. The courses concludes with a study of naval ship handling, watch standing fundamentals, underway replenishment fundamentals, and command and control issues. Case studies of navigation and naval operation accidents reinforce the lessons learned and underscore the need for vigilance when operating ships at sea.

NAVS 3110. Amphibious Warfare (4)  S
MARINE OPTION COURSE. A historical study of the developments of amphibious doctrine and the conduct of amphibious operations. Emphasis is placed on the evolution of amphibious warfare in the 20th century, especially World War II. Present day potential and limitations on amphibious operations, including the concept of rapid deployment forces. Additionally, the course explores vertical assault, readiness operations, and landing operations from the sea.

NAVS 4010. Leadership and Management (3)  F
The course examines organizational behavior, and management and leadership principles in the context of the naval or marine corps organization. Management theory, ethics, tactical and strategic planning, decision making, motivational techniques, group dynamics and analytical skills are examined with the goal of developing effective managerial skills and leadership fundamentals.

NAVS 4020. Leadership and Ethics (3)  S
This course is designed as the capstone course of the NROTC academic sequence. The course is an overview of the duties, responsibilities and expectations of a junior officer. Through the use of in-class discussion, panels, role playing and out-of-class projects, the course addresses personal ethics, code of conduct, military law and administrative skills required of the junior Navy or Marine Corps Officer.
