- Tutoring for lower and upper division classes

Supplemental Instruction

Telephone: 801-626-6803
Location: Student Services, Suite 266

Supplemental Instruction (SI) provides opportunities for students in specific freshman level courses as designated in the class schedule. Students may participate in learning teams where they explore concepts and solve problems through group discussion and interaction as directed by a student team leader who has successfully completed the course.

The SI Program

- Targets traditionally difficult courses
- Identifies high-risk classes rather than high-risk students
- Available in all subject areas ranging from social sciences to natural sciences and mathematics
- On average, students who attend SI receive one half to a whole grade higher than students in the same class who do not
- Is a nationally recognized academic assistance program

SI Study Sessions

- Regularly scheduled, out-of-class, peer facilitated, volunteer group study sessions
- Students may review their notes, complete homework, discuss class lectures, prepare for a quiz or a test, or discuss the topic for the next day

SI Instructors/Peer Leaders

- WSU students who have recently completed the class with an A- or A letter grade
- Receive eight hours of comprehensive training before starting their teaching assignment
- Attend a series of bi-weekly training sessions throughout the term
- Regularly attend the class that they are providing supplemental instruction for
- Hold 3-5 SI sessions outside the classroom each week
- Meet with their supervisor every week
- Meet with the faculty member as required by the faculty member

WSU Student Association (WSUSA)

Telephone: 801-626-7641
Location: Shepherd Union, Suite 250

Weber State University Student Association (WSUSA) exists to serve and protect the interests and rights of students and to provide services and programs for the enrichment of the university experience on campus and statewide. Opportunities for leadership development and representation of the student voice to the administration are coordinated through the WSUSA office. Interested students will find many ways to become involved. An array of programs and activities are planned to appeal to every student. Listed below are the areas of WSUSA:

Legislative Branch

There are 19 student senators who meet every Monday at 1:30 pm. Senate meetings are held to pass legislation dealing with campus issues. Senators meet with their area councils on a regular basis to discuss the issues that will be brought to the Senate meetings. Senators represent the academic colleges and special constituencies.

Judicial Branch

The Judicial Branch of WSUSA is known as the Supreme Court and Student Advocate Council (SAC). All judicial power is vested in a Supreme Court of the WSUSA. The Supreme Court has the power to interpret the WSUSA Constitution upon petition, to determine the constitutionality of all legislation passed by the WSUSA Senate upon petition, and to perform any other judicial functions.

Executive Branch

The Executive Branch of Government has the specific power to execute the programs and expenditures of the WSUSA in accordance with their respective duties and responsibilities. The Executive Branch is made up of the president, two vice-presidents and appointed cabinet members.
